Ike, George Discuss Aid Plans Today

Long-Term Foreign Assistance Opposed By Richards, Vorys

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22 (AP)—Chairman Richards (D-SC) of the House Foreign Affairs Committee and Rep. Vorys (R-Ohio), a senior committee Republican, both said today they are against voting for foreign aid for more than one year at a time.

The statements by Richards and Vorys in separate interviews indicated the administration has made little headway, despite intensive efforts, in its campaign to persuade key legislators to enact long-term foreign aid authority.

President Eisenhower will renew these efforts personally tomorrow at a White House huddle with Sen. George of Georgia, the Democratic leader in congressional foreign policy matters.

Dulles Failed To Move George

Secretary of State Dulles has tried his hand at persuading George to line up with the administration and failed to move him. Dulles also tried unsuccessfully to enlist the support of Sen. Knowland of California, the Senate Republican leader. Both George and Knowland have opposed the administration plan.

A possible compromise—which would not give Eisenhower and Dulles the 10-year future commitment power they are reported to want—has been suggested by Richards.

Richards said Congress should write into the next foreign aid bill a "general statement" of intent that foreign aid, both military and economic, will continue for as many years as needed to fight the menace of international communism.

Five-Year Plan Backed

A somewhat similar proposal, embodying a five-year limit, was advanced in a statement by 17 House Democrats who said:

"We believe a statement of the intent of the American people, speaking through their elected representatives, that we are in this fight to win would assist in offsetting the gains the Soviets are attempting to achieve in those areas striving for economic and political advancement."

The Democrats said they believed this country's foreign friends would take renewed confidence in their struggle against Communist encroachment "if they have tangible evidence that the United States is prepared to assist them as long as such assistance is necessary."

Abbott Case Jurors Still Deliberating

OAKLAND, Calif., Jan. 22 (AP)—The Burton Abbott murder trial jury indicated late today, fourth day of deliberations, that no verdict was in prospect tonight.

Still resolving doubts surrounding the unwitnessed kidnapping-murder of 14-year-old Stephanie Bryan, the jurors in midafternoon asked and were granted permission of the trial judge to remain closed "without a break" until 8 p.m., then to be taken to their hotel for dinner and retirement for the night.

There still was no sign that the jurors had taken their first ballot. The length of the deliberations was no surprise in view of the strange nature of the case.

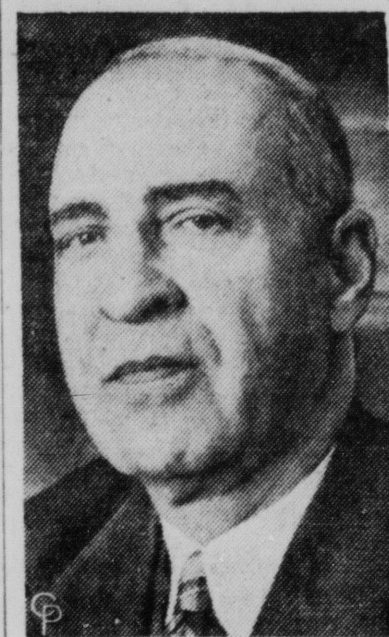

No one saw the pretty, dark-haired schoolgirl abducted last April 28 on her way home from school in Berkeley. Her disappearance was a mystery until her beaten body was found 84 days later, 250 miles north of Berkeley in wild mountain country near Abbott's fishing cabin.

The burden of prosecution proof has been scientific—that hair and cloth fibers found in Abbott's car matched Stephanie's hair and clothes; that clay taken from a nine-inch depth in her grave matched clay on Abbott's boots.

President Might Sanction Tax Cut In Case Of Slump

TO GET AWARD—Sen. Lister Hill (D-Ala.) has been chosen to receive the first annual award of the National Mental Health Committee for "outstanding contributions by a public official during 1955 in the fight against mental illness."

A gold statuette will be presented to the Alabama senator Feb. 10.

Adenauer Urges Ike, Eden Seek German Unity

BONN, Germany, Jan. 22 (AP)—Chancellor Konrad Adenauer is urging President Eisenhower and Prime Minister Eden to launch a new drive for German unity during their conference in Washington next week.

Diplomatic officials said today German Ambassador Heinz Krehl will meet with State Department officials this week to present Adenauer's request. Hans von Herwarth, German ambassador in London, conveyed the Chancellor's view to British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd yesterday.

Officials here said the 80-year-old German leader wants to insure that:

1. The German question is not pushed into the background in the Washington meeting by Middle East and Far Eastern questions.

2. President Eisenhower and Sir Anthony consider new moves to win Soviet Russia's assent to unify this divided nation.

3. Bonn's leaders are kept fully informed of any German discussions during the conference.

German authorities say Adenauer's view is that the Western Powers and the Bonn Republic must maintain pressure on Moscow on the German question or risk a serious loss of prestige among Germans on both sides of the Iron Curtain, they said.

Truck Skids Into Car, Killing Five Persons

BROWNSBURG, Ind., Jan. 22 (AP)—A truck skidded sideways out of a snowbank and killed five of the eight occupants of an automobile today on U.S. 136, 2½ miles west of Brownsburg and 21 miles north of Indianapolis. The other three were critically hurt.

The accident happened on an icy hill.

State police listed the dead, all of Indianapolis, as John Wesley Buxton Jr., 26; James Henry Faulk Jr., 36; Faulk's wife, Edna, 28, and their sons, Stephen, 6 and John, 3.

Study Discloses Roman Catholic Church 'Efficient As Any Nonprofit Organization'

NEW YORK, Jan. 22 (AP)—The head of the American Institute of Management today rated the Roman Catholic Church as "efficient as any nonprofit organization in the world."

Jackson Martindell, president of the institute, made the statement at a news conference in connection with the release of a summary report of a management study of the Roman Catholic Church.

He said the report results from the work of "hundreds of researchers" and the gathering of material published in 30 languages. Martindell said the study "represents the opinions of hundreds of people and statistics gathered by hundreds of people."

The report said the recent elevation of Giovanni Battista Montini as archbishop of Milan "appears to be a step in the grooming of this important individual, perhaps ultimately for the highest office."

Annual Economic Report Tomorrow

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22 (AP)—President Eisenhower's economic report to Congress is expected to forecast a slowdown of business growth but, nevertheless, a record 400-billion-dollar production rate this year.

The report, third and last of the major annual messages of the President, is scheduled for delivery on Tuesday.

A high administration official said Eisenhower will re-emphasize his view, declared in both his State of the Union and budget messages, that reduction of the national debt should precede any tax cuts.

Ike May Clarify Position

However, this official suggested to a reporter that Eisenhower may make it clear he would sanction tax relief if, later in the year, the unprecedented business boom shows signs of softening into a recession.

This was hinted at in the earlier messages, when Eisenhower said the country could not justify a tax cut at the expense of future generations "under conditions of high peacetime prosperity, such as now exists."

The language implied that if conditions changed, the President's position on tax reduction also would change. And—according to the administration source—the President's advisers do not discount the possibility that the business boom may be approaching its peak and heading toward a downturn.

Slack Signs Visible

Some signs of slack are visible now—the year-end sags in autos and housing, the continued fall of farm income, a leveling off of retail sales, and the fact that business stocks on hand are coming close enough to normal levels to suggest that industry may cut down its inventory buying soon.

If a downturn appeared likely to assume serious proportions, tax relief could provide a welcome booster shot of buying power. But the official emphasized that administration economists expect no serious slump.

Most of them, it was reported, expect production to pass the 400-billion-dollar mark in 1956 for the first time in history and to average out above that level for the year as a whole despite possible fluctuations as the year progresses.

Boy, 11, Shoots Father To Death During Argument

FRANKLIN, Pa., Jan. 22 (AP)—Police said an 11-year-old boy killed his father with a shotgun during an argument in their home last night.

Police Chief Raymond J. Brown said Raymond W. Denny Jr. instantly killed his 39-year-old father with a blast in the back from a 20-gauge shotgun.

Brown said the shooting occurred after Denny and his wife had returned home late from a tavern and began to argue.

After the shooting, the chief said, Raymond Jr. dashed out of the house without putting on shoes, a coat or hat and ran barefooted through a three-inch layer of snow to the police station a half mile away.

Raymond Jr. was placed in protective custody at Franklin Hospital where he is reported suffering from shock.

Bombay Quiet Following Six Days Of Riots

Death Toll, Counted By Police At 56, May Run To 300 Or 400

BOMBAY, India, Jan. 22 (AP)—The violence in Bombay over language frontiers apparently burned itself out today after six days of riots in which the death toll, counted by police at 56, may run to 300 or 400.

But inflamed emotions were still flying and could spark renewal of the disturbances here and elsewhere at any moment.

Comparatively small flareups occurred today in Cuttack, capital of Orissa State, on the East Coast where police charged mobs with tear gas and clubs and three times opened fire.

Demonstration In Madras

In Madras, to the south, there were demonstrations against exclusion of certain Tamil-speaking areas of Travancore from Madras State. But these were confined to small sections near the Madras State Ministry and Indian government offices. American evangelist Billy Graham, who is visiting the city, went ahead with plans for scheduled meetings with Christian workers, students and pastors tomorrow.

In New Delhi, Tara Singh, fiery, bearded leader of the Sikh Akali party, met with Prime Minister Nehru and other government ministers on Sikh demands for formation of a Punjab Subha, a state where the dagger-wielding Sikhs would have virtual equality with Hindus. Sikhs in the Punjab have been threatening riots as serious as those in Bombay if their demands are not met.

Resignation Threatened

M. Sanjeevi Reddi, deputy minister of Andhra State, threatened that the entire Andhra State Cabinet would resign unless demands for enlargement of the state are met. Workers have been on strike for three days in several towns in the state, which was carved from Madras State to meet the demands of a linguistic group.

A railroad official said disturbances were causing delays to trains to and from Calcutta, as well as Bombay and New Delhi.

Prime Minister Nehru met with members of his Congress party high command for four hours in New Delhi to discuss the situation.

More Redstone Missiles Slated

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22 (AP)—The Army will begin getting quantities of its Redstone missile—a 300-mile range, faster-than-sound, atomic-armed weapon—during the year starting July 1.

A 300-million-dollar fund for Army missile procurement in the 1957 fiscal year budget includes money for production of the Redstone missile on which development started at least three years ago, it was learned tonight.

However, it is likely that the quantities provided for will be used for still further extensive testing and training purposes. This indicates that Army combat units probably will not start receiving the missiles before next year.

Full-scale test firings of the Redstone are conducted at the long-range missile proving ground at Patrick Air Force Base, Fla., operated by the Air Force for development and test work by the Army, Navy and Air Force.

Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, the Army's chief of staff, recently saw one of the experimental Redstone missiles fired. He told newsmen that it was "tremendously impressive."

Six Injured As Bus Collides With Truck

ONARGA, Ill., Jan. 22 (AP)—A two-deck Greyhound bus collided with the rear of a truck-trailer early today on snow-slick pavement, injuring six passengers.

The glancing collision tore away part of the right lower deck housing, and sent the big bus across a ditch and up onto the Illinois Central Railroad embankment.

Both the bus and the truck were northbound on U. S. Route 45, although police said the truck apparently was stopped when the crash occurred three miles south of Onarga—about midway between Champaign and Kankakee. The bus was bound from Champaign to Chicago.

Irvin Trail Cold

PRINCETON, Ind., Jan. 22 (AP)—The trail of Leslie Irvin, condemned killer who escaped from the Gibson county jail last Wednesday night, grew colder today. Police returned empty handed from checking reports he was seen in widely separated localities.

Woman Removed After Wreck

An injured woman passenger is lifted on a stretcher from one of the cars of a Santa Fe diesel train which wrecked at Los Angeles last night. Forty-seven persons were reported killed in the wreck. Survivors said the train overturned and scraped on its side for a distance of perhaps 100 yards. (AP Photofax)

Solons Kept U.S. Out Of Indo War, McCormack Says

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22 (AP)—Rep. McCormack (D-Mass.) said today the United States "would have been over the brink and into war" in Indochina but for brakes applied by congressional leaders.

McCormack, the House Democratic leader, said top legislators of both parties advised a slowdown at a meeting in Secretary of State Dulles' office in April 1954.

He said in a television interview there was talk at that gathering of "a mass air attack upon Communists who were besieging Dien Bien Phu."

Radford Favored Intervention. Elaborating later to a reporter, McCormack said the congressional leaders advised Dulles and Adm. Arthur W. Radford, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, to get together first with Great Britain and France.

Radford, he said, favored intervention in Indochina at the time Communist forces were storming the French fortress at Dien Bien Phu, which finally fell.

McCormack added that Radford conceded under questioning at the meeting that other members of the Joint Chiefs "did not agree with him."

He recalled that President Eisenhower had declared previously the administration would not embroil the United States in war without going to Congress in advance.

New Criticism Of Dulles. At the meeting in Dulles' office, McCormack said, the "substance" of the congressional leaders' position about a prior agreement with England and France was this:

"Before you come to Congress, you had better come up with a full package, signed and sealed—and no token assistance."

Both McCormack and Sen. Douglas (D-Ill.) heaped new criticism on Dulles for "brink of war" statements attributed to the secretary in a Life magazine article.

Dulles said the United States was brought to the verge of war three times, but avoided going over as a result of firm policies. One of the "brinks" Dulles cited was Indochina.

Sunday School Teacher Kills Wife And Two Sons

MARTINSVILLE, Ind., Jan. 22 (AP)—A truck driver-Sunday School teacher killed his wife and two sons with a shotgun today and told police, "This is doomsday and I sent them to Heaven."

Sheriff Victor Young said Robert Heckman, 31, "believes he is Jesus Christ. He gave that as his name when I asked him."

The sheriff said the victims were Mrs. Jane E. Heckman, 30; Rick, 11, and Chad, 10.

The boys' naked bodies were lying in a bathtub full of bloody water in their home at Brooklyn, 11 miles north of Martinsville. Their mother's body lay in a hallway just outside the bathroom.

Young said Heckman made an oral statement that he shot his wife first, then killed the boys. "I sent them to Heaven, and I'll join them there," the sheriff quoted Heckman.

Czechs Blame Air Crash On Western Leaflet Balloon

VIENNA, Austria, Jan. 22 (AP)—The Communist newspaper Volksstimme claimed today a Czech air-liner which crashed in the Tatra Mountains Wednesday, killing 22 persons, had hit a propaganda balloon.

The paper said its charge was based on established evidence. Radio Prague said Friday leaflet balloons launched in the West had forced Czech airlines to cancel night flights but did not attempt to connect the Wednesday crash near the Polish border with such a balloon.

The official Czech news agency CTK said today Czech authorities have appealed to the International Civil Aviation Organization to stop the leaflet balloon campaign by the American-sponsored Radio Free Europe.

Radio Free Europe officials in Munich, Germany, denied yesterday the leaflet balloons endanger planes.

Africa Violence Leaves 40 Dead

TUNIS, Tunisia, Jan. 22 (AP)—Forty persons were killed Saturday in a night of violence that spread across both sides of the Tunisian-Algerian border. Nine others were reported wounded.

The violence included military clashes, political assassinations and kidnappings. The latest casualties brought to nearly 200 the number of persons killed, most of them nationalist rebels, in tense French North Africa in the last 10 days.

Two big clashes occurred last night between security forces and rebel bands. French forces fought a battle with Algerian rebels and some Moroccans from across the nearby border south of Nemours, near the coast. Fifteen rebels and five French were killed, and eight other French were wounded. Twenty-two rebels were captured.

Tunisian security forces raiding the village of Redeyef, a few miles from the Algerian border, caught a band of Tunisian and Algerian rebels. Fourteen rebels were killed.

MIGs' Collision Believed Caused To Halt Deserter

VIENNA, Austria, Jan. 22 (AP)—Austrian police said tonight they believe a fiery collision of two Communist MIG15 jet fighters yesterday over Austria was caused by a Soviet pilot trying to catch and turn back a deserter.

In their struggle the Russian apparently rammed the deserter and both planes crashed in flames. The MIGs, swooping in from Communist Hungary, collided over the border province of Burgenland. One pilot died in his wreckage but the other parachuted to safety. The dead pilot's plane bore the Soviet air force's red star insignia.

Russian's Explanation. The surviving pilot identified himself as Capt. Nikolai Konoklov of the Soviet air force. He told Austrian police he had been dispatched from his base in Győr, Hungary, to pursue "a plane of unknown nationality" which had invaded Hungarian air space.

But police and witnesses said they believe Konoklov was chasing a deserter, and, failing to make him turn back, rammed him. Austrians said this probably explained why Konoklov was prepared to parachute and save his life while the other pilot died.

Austria Plans Protest. After questioning by Austrian security officials, Konoklov was handed over to the Soviet Embassy here. The Austrian government announced it is protesting to Hungary about the territorial violation.

Austrian security officials said documents in both MIGs had been burned. The area where the wreckage lies, near the village of Pamhagen, has been sealed off and the body of the dead pilot has not been recovered.

Australian Dock Tieup

SYDNEY, Australia, Jan. 22 (AP)—More than 100 ships were immobilized in Australian ports today by a strike involving 26,000 waterfront workers. The stoppage, which began at midnight, intended to enforce a demand for the equivalent of an 11-cents-an-hour increase in pay.

2-Car Diesel Tips Over At Los Angeles

Survivors Report Some Dead Ground Beneath Coaches

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 22 (AP)—A two-car Santa Fe diesel train en route to San Diego was wrecked tonight, and a deputy coroner estimated tentatively that 47 persons were killed and 35 to 40 injured. Fourteen bodies were laid in a roped-off area near the track. Deputy Coroner Charles J. Woodward said the others were still in or under the train.

Police first said the still am- lance to reach the scene reported about 88 persons dead, but officers said later a more accurate estimate was 88 "casualties."

The crowded train had left for San Diego, 125 miles to the south a few minutes earlier at 5:30 p.m. and was on the southeastern outskirts of Los Angeles, near Washington Blvd. and Soto St., about four miles from the station when the accident occurred.

Survivors said it had been rounding a curve when it left the tracks and crashed over on its right side parallel to the tracks.

Observers said some occupants were tumbled through the windows and ground under the train as it scraped on its side—for a distance estimated by one at perhaps 100 yards. A priest administered the last rites to a woman trapped under one car.

Many victims were trapped inside the stainless steel coaches. Firemen used axes and sledges to smash their way into the cars.

Heavy duty cranes were brought in along with searchlights preparatory to lifting the cars and removing bodies which could be seen trapped underneath.

Stunned, injured survivors sat or stood along the ground near the wrecked train. One said the car in which he was riding "began to shake, then it began to screech, then it went over on its side."

Bodies Laid In Nearby Area. Bodies were laid in a roped-off area on the ground near the tracks.

Firemen and rescue workers climbed ladders to the upper side of the train, smashed windows, dropped into the train and brought out dead and injured.

A batch of whole blood was sent from the Los Angeles Red Cross Center to General Hospital for victims of the wreck. "We've sent 100 pints and have promised to strip the shelves if need be," a Red Cross spokesman said.

A railroad spokesman said there were approximately 150 persons aboard the two cars. Each car has a capacity of 88 passengers plus crew—a total of 176 passengers.

About 60 per cent of the passengers were civilians, the remainder service personnel returning to San Diego bases following weekend liberty, the spokesman said.

GOP Split Over Bowie Feared

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22 (AP)—Sen. Bridges (R-NH) said today he fears controversy over one of President Eisenhower's State Department appointments may split Republicans while the administration's foreign policies are under sharp Democratic attack.

Bridges, who heads the Senate Republican Policy Committee, indicated he expects fireworks when the Senate takes up the nomination of Robert R. Bowie of Massachusetts to be an assistant secretary of state.

Bridges and Sen. Knowland of California, the Senate Republican leader, have made it clear they are opposed to promoting Bowie, who has headed the State Department's Policy Planning Committee. In that position Bowie serves as one of Secretary Dulles' advisers.

While Bridges and Knowland have not given any public reason for their opposition, it is reported to be based on Bowie's reputed stand that the United States must face up to the issue of the likely admission of Red China to the United Nations.

Found Dead In Car

PALOS VERDES ESTATES, Calif., Jan. 22 (AP)—A mother and her two small children were found huddled in death in a car only 100 feet from a church today. Police called it suicide and double murder.

They were identified as Mrs. Betty Lou Brewer, 32, and her son Terry, 4, and daughter Susan, 3. Chief J. A. Smith said a vacuum cleaner hose ran from the exhaust into the car.

Death Toll, Counted By Police At 56, May Run To 300 Or 400

BOMBAY, India, Jan. 22 (AP)—The violence in Bombay over language frontiers apparently burned itself out today after six days of riots in which the death toll, counted by police at 56, may run to 300 or 400.

But inflamed emotions were still flying and could spark renewal of the disturbances here and elsewhere at any moment.

Comparatively small flareups occurred today in Cuttack, capital of Orissa State, on the East Coast where police charged mobs with tear gas and clubs and three times opened fire.

Demonstration In Madras

In Madras, to the south, there were demonstrations against exclusion of certain Tamil-speaking areas of Travancore from Madras State. But these were confined to small sections near the Madras State Ministry and Indian government offices. American evangelist Billy Graham, who is visiting the city, went ahead with plans for scheduled meetings with Christian workers, students and pastors tomorrow.

In New Delhi, Tara Singh, fiery, bearded leader of the Sikh Akali party, met with Prime Minister Nehru and other government ministers on Sikh demands for formation of a Punjabi Subha, a state where the dagger-wielding Sikhs would have virtual equality with Hindus. Sikhs in the Punjab have been threatening riots as serious as those in Bombay if their demands are not met.

Resignation Threatened

M. Sanjeevi Reddi, deputy minister of Andhra State, threatened that the entire Andhra State Cabinet would resign unless demands for enlargement of the state are met. Workers have been on strike for three days in several towns in the state, which was carved from Madras State to meet the demands of a linguistic group.

A railroad official said disturbances were causing delays to trains to and from Calcutta, as well as Bombay and New Delhi.

Prime Minister Nehru met with members of his Congress party high command for four hours in New Delhi to discuss the situation.

More Redstone Missiles Slated

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22 (AP)—The Army will begin getting quantities of its Redstone missile—a 300-mile range, faster-than-sound, atomic-armed weapon—during the year starting July 1.

A 300-million-dollar fund for Army missile procurement in the 1957 fiscal year budget includes money for production of the Redstone missile on which development started at least three years ago, it was learned tonight.

However, it is likely that the quantities provided for will be used for still further extensive testing and training purposes. This indicates that Army combat units probably will not start receiving the missiles before next year.

Full-scale test firings of the Redstone are conducted at the long-range missile proving ground at Patrick Air Force Base, Fla., operated by the Air Force for development and test work by the Army, Navy and Air Force.

Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, the Army's chief of staff, recently saw one of the experimental Redstone missiles fired. He told newsmen that it was "tremendously impressive."

Study Discloses Roman Catholic Church 'Efficient As Any Nonprofit Organization'

NEW YORK, Jan. 22 (AP)—The head of the American Institute of Management today rated the Roman Catholic Church as "efficient as any nonprofit organization in the world."

Jackson Martindell, president of the institute, made the statement at a news conference in connection with the release of a summary report of a management study of the Roman Catholic Church.

He said the report results from the work of "hundreds of researchers" and the gathering of material published in 30 languages. Martindell said the study "represents the opinions of hundreds of people and statistics gathered by hundreds of people."

The report said the recent elevation of Giovanni Battista Montini as archbishop of Milan "appears to be a step in the grooming of this important individual, perhaps ultimately for the highest office."

Woman Removed After Wreck

An injured woman passenger is lifted on a stretcher from one of the cars of a Santa Fe diesel train which wrecked at Los Angeles last night. Forty-seven persons were reported killed in the wreck. Survivors said the train overturned and scraped on its side for a distance of perhaps 100 yards. (AP Photofax)

Solons Kept U.S. Out Of Indo War, McCormack Says

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22 (AP)—Rep. McCormack (D-Mass.) said today the United States "would have been over the brink and into war" in Indochina but for brakes applied by congressional leaders.

McCormack, the House Democratic leader, said top legislators of both parties advised a slowdown at a meeting in Secretary of State Dulles' office in April 1954.

He said in a television interview there was talk at that gathering of "a mass air attack upon Communists who were besieging Dien Bien Phu."

Radford Favored Intervention

Elaborating later to a reporter, McCormack said the congressional leaders advised Dulles and Adm. Arthur W. Radford, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, to get together first with Great Britain and France.

Radford, he said, favored intervention in Indochina at the time Communist forces were storming the French fortress at Dien Bien Phu, which finally fell.

McCormack added that Radford concurred under questioning at the meeting that other members of the Joint Chiefs "did not agree with him."

He recalled that President Eisenhower had declared previously the administration would not embroil the United States in war without going to Congress in advance.

New Criticism Of Dulles

At the meeting in Dulles' office, McCormack said, the "substance" of the congressional leaders' position about a prior agreement with England and France was this: "Before you come to Congress, you had better come up with a full package, signed and sealed—and no token assistance."

Both McCormack and Sen. Douglas (D-Ill.) heaped new criticism on Dulles for "brink of war" statements attributed to the secretary in a Life magazine article.

Dulles said the United States was brought to the verge of war three times, but avoided going over as a result of firm policies. One of the "brinks" Dulles cited was Indochina.

Six Injured As Bus Collides With Truck

ONARCA, Ill., Jan. 22 (AP)—A two-deck Greyhound bus collided with the rear of a truck-trailer rig early today on snow-slick pavement, injuring six passengers.

The glancing collision tore away part of the right lower deck housing, and sent the big bus across a ditch and up onto the Illinois Central Railroad embankment.

Both the bus and the truck were northbound on U. S. Route 45, although police said the truck apparently was stopped, when the crash occurred three miles south of Onarga—about midway between Champaign and Kankakee. The bus was bound from Champaign to Chicago.

Irvin Trail Cold

PRINCETON, Ind., Jan. 22 (AP)—The trail of Leslie Irvin, condemned killer who escaped from the Gibson county jail last Wednesday night, grew colder today. Police returned empty handed from checking reports he was seen in widely separated localities.

Czechs Blame Air Crash On Western Leaflet Balloon

VIENNA, Austria, Jan. 22 (AP)—The Communist newspaper Volksstimme claimed today a Czech airliner which crashed in the Tatras Mountains Wednesday, killing 22 persons, had hit a propaganda balloon.

The paper said its charge was based on established evidence. Radio Prague said Friday leaflet balloons launched in the West had forced Czech airlines to cancel night flights but did not attempt to connect the Wednesday crash near the Polish border with such a balloon.

The official Czech news agency CTK said today Czech authorities have appealed to the International Civil Aviation Organization to stop the leaflet balloon campaign by the American-sponsored Radio Free Europe.

Radio Free Europe officials in Munich, Germany, denied yesterday the leaflet balloons endanger planes.

Africa Violence Leaves 40 Dead

TUNIS, Tunisia, Jan. 22 (AP)—Forty persons were killed Saturday in a night of violence that spread across both sides of the Tunisian-Algerian border. Nine others were reported wounded.

The violence included military clashes, political assassinations and kidnappings. The latest casualties brought to nearly 200 the number of persons killed, most of them nationalist rebels, in tense French North Africa in the last 10 days. Two big clashes occurred last night between security forces and rebel bands.

French forces fought a battle with Algerian rebels and some Moroccans from across the nearby border south of Nemours, near the coast. Fifteen rebels and five French were killed, and eight other French were wounded. Twenty-two rebels were captured.

Tunisian security forces raiding the village of Redeyef, a few miles from the Algerian border, caught a band of Tunisian and Algerian rebels. Fourteen rebels were killed.

Sunday School Teacher Kills Wife And Two Sons

MARTINSVILLE, Ind., Jan. 22 (AP)—A truck driver-Sunday School teacher killed his wife and two sons with a shotgun today and told police, "This is doomsday and I sent them to Heaven."

Sheriff Victor Young said Robert Heckman, 31, "believes he is Jesus Christ. He gave that as his name when I asked him."

The sheriffs said the victims were Mrs. Jane E. Heckman, 30; Rick, 11, and Chad, 10.

The boys' naked bodies were lying in a bathtub full of bloody water in their home at Brookville, 11 miles north of Martinsville. Their mother's body lay in a hallway just outside the bathroom.

Young said Heckman made an oral statement that he shot his wife first, then killed the boys. "I sent them to Heaven, and I'll join them there," the sheriff quoted Heckman.

Young said Heckman went to

MIGs' Collision Believed Caused To Halt Deserter

VIENNA, Austria, Jan. 22 (AP)—Austrian police said tonight they believe a fiery collision of two Communist MIG15 jet fighters yesterday over Austria was caused by a Soviet pilot trying to catch and turn back a deserter.

In their struggle the Russian apparently rammed the deserter and both planes crashed in flames.

The MIGs, swooping in from Communist Hungary, collided over the border province of Burgenland. One pilot died in his wreckage but the other parachuted to safety. The dead pilot's plane bore the Soviet air force's red star insignia.

Russian's Explanation

The surviving pilot identified himself as Capt. Nikolai Konokov, of the Soviet air force. He told Austrian police he had been dispatched from his base in Győr, Hungary, to pursue "a plane of unknown nationality" which had invaded Hungarian air space.

But police and witnesses said they believe Konokov was chasing a deserter, and, failing to make him turn back, rammed him. Austrians said this probably explained why Konokov was prepared to parachute and save his life while the other pilot died.

Austria Plans Protest

After questioning by Austrian security officials, Konokov was handed over to the Soviet Embassy here. The Austrian government announced it is protesting to Hungary about the territorial violation.

Austrian security officials said documents in both MIGs had been burned. The area where the wreckage lies, near the village of Pamhagen, has been sealed off and the body of the dead pilot has not been recovered.

Australian Dock Tieup

SYDNEY, Australia, Jan. 22 (AP)—More than 100 ships were immobilized in Australian ports today by a strike involving 26,000 waterfront workers. The stoppage, which began at midnight, intended to enforce a demand for the equivalent of an 11-cent-an-hour increase in pay.

2-Car Diesel Tips Over At Los Angeles

Survivors Report Some Dead Ground Beneath Coaches

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 22 (AP)—A two-car Santa Fe diesel train en route to San Diego was wrecked tonight, and a deputy coroner estimated tentatively that 47 persons were killed and 35 to 40 injured.

Fourteen bodies were laid in a roped-off area near the track. Deputy Coroner Charles J. Woodward said the others were still in or under the train.

Police first said the first ambulance to reach the scene reported about 88 persons dead, but officers said later a more accurate estimate was 88 "casualties."

The crowded train had left for San Diego, 125 miles to the south a few minutes earlier at 5:30 p.m., and was on the southeastern outskirts of Los Angeles, near Washington Blvd. and Soto St., about four miles from the station when the accident occurred.

Turns Over On Curve

Survivors said it had been rounding a curve when it left the tracks and crashed over on its right side parallel to the tracks.

Observers said some occupants were tumbled through the windows and ground under the train as it scraped on its side—for a distance estimated by one at perhaps 100 yards. A priest administered the last rites to a woman trapped under one car.

Many victims were trapped inside the stainless steel coaches. Firemen used axes and sledges to smash their way into the cars. Heavy duty cranes were brought in along with searchlights preparatory to lifting the cars and removing bodies which could be seen trapped underneath.

Stunned, injured survivors sat or stood along the ground near the wrecked train. One said the car in which he was riding "began to shake, then it began to screech, then it went over on its side."

Bodies Laid In Nearby Area

Bodies were laid in a roped-off area on the ground near the tracks.

Firemen and rescue workers climbed ladders to the upper side of the train, smashed windows, dropped into the train and brought out dead and injured.

A batch of whole blood was sent from the Los Angeles Red Cross Center to General Hospital for victims of the wreck. "We've sent 100 pints and have promised to strip the shelves if need be," a Red Cross spokesman said.

A railroad spokesman said there were approximately 150 persons aboard the two cars. Each car has a capacity of 88 passengers plus crew—a total of 176 passengers.

About 60 per cent of the passengers were civilians, the remainder service personnel returning to San Diego bases following weekend liberty, the spokesman said.

GOP Split Over Bowie Feared

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22 (AP)—Sen. Bridges (R-NH) said today he fears controversy over one of President Eisenhower's State Department appointments may split Republicans while the administration's foreign policies are under sharp Democratic attack.

Bridges, who heads the Senate Republican Policy Committee, indicated he expects fireworks when the Senate takes up the nomination of Robert R. Bowie of Massachusetts to be an assistant secretary of state.

Bridges and Sen. Knowland of California, the Senate Republican leader, have made it clear they are opposed to promoting Bowie, who has headed the State Department's Policy Planning Committee. In that position Bowie serves as one of Secretary Dulles' advisers.

While Bridges and Knowland have not given any public reason for their opposition, it is reported to be based on Bowie's reputed stand that the United States must face up to the issue of the likely admission of Red China to the United Nations.

Found Dead In Car

PALOS VERDES ESTATES, Calif., Jan. 22 (AP)—A mother and her two small children were found huddled in death in a car only 100 feet from a church today. Police called it suicide and double murder.

They were identified as Mrs. Betty Lou Brewer, 32, and her son Terry, 4, and daughter Susan, 3. Chief J. A. Smith said a vacuum cleaner hose ran from the exhaust into the car.

Oakland Man Charged With Murder Intent

Howard J. Martin, 29, Is In County Jail

OAKLAND—A 29-year-old local man was booked Saturday on a charge of assault with intent to murder as an aftermath to an early Friday morning episode at Crellin.

Garrett County Sheriff Paul Fisher said a warrant was obtained and served on Howard J. Martin Saturday in the Garrett County jail.

Sheriff Fisher reported Martin was arrested after Luther Harman, 40, of Oakland, was found unclothed on a porch of a private home in Crellin, suffering from knife wounds and exposure.

Harman is a patient in Garrett County Memorial Hospital for treatment of knife wounds on his back and scalp, and for frostbite. The sheriff said Harman is in fair condition.

The sheriff reported he received a telephone call about 3 a. m. Friday from a Crellin woman saying a naked man was on her front porch.

Sheriff Fisher and Deputy Sheriff James Frantz went to the scene and found Harman unclothed, except for his socks. The woman had covered him with a blanket. After searching the area, Sheriff Fisher said he and his deputy found an old overcoat which had been given Harman earlier in the morning by a resident of the Crellin area.

Harman was described as being "frozen stiff" by the officers who said they estimated he had been unclothed in the freezing weather for about three or four hours.

During the time the sheriff and his deputy were taking Harman to the hospital, Trooper Robert Henlin was investigating the report of another man on a porch of a home about five miles away.

This man turned out to be Martin, the sheriff added. During questioning yesterday, the accused man refused to answer any query.

The Garrett County law enforcement officer said his preliminary investigation has indicated the two men had been in a car which ran off the road into a snow plow.

The area around the car showed signs of a struggle.

Sunshine Girls Aid Dimes March

LONAONING—Victory Council No. 1 Pythian Sunshine Girls sold "Polio" balloons on Saturday to raise funds for the Lonaconing March of Dimes.

The group of girls had the balloon campaign on Main street and also made a canvass to homes in the community to obtain funds for the March of Dimes drive.

A bake sale was held Saturday by the Lonaconing Women's club at Eichhorn's furniture store to raise funds for three of the drives to which they contribute, the March of Dimes, the Red Cross and the Heart fund.

Garrett Voting Device Question Still Tangled

OAKLAND—The Garrett County Board of Commissioners took no action last week on the request of the Board of Election Supervisors for "prompt approval" of the purchase of 36 manual type voting machines from the Automatic Voting Machine Corporation of Jamestown, N. Y., for $1,374 for each machine.

The Election Board notified the commissioners by letter of their decision. It was signed by William L. Gibson, president of the board, and Francis W. Sanders, member. The third member of the board, William O. Treacy, did not sign the letter.

The Election Board letter also contained seven details of the Automatic Voting Corporation devices which are cited as being superior to the Shoup Voting Machine Company's devices. The major feature cited was horizontal "eye level" listing of candidates.

In an editorial in The Republican, a weekly newspaper published here, it was stated that the voting machine situation is "more and more tangled."

The body will remain at the George Funeral Home.

Midland Medical Center Makes Plans For Operation In 1956

Funds Provided By Contributions

MIDLAND — The Midland Medical Center Committee has completed plans for its 1956 operation, and has appealed for continued contributions from assisting organizations.

The committee includes David Williams, president; Magistrate James G. Blair, treasurer; John Devlin Jr., secretary; Thomas S. Taylor, John J. Jeffries, vice presidents; Raymond Bampton, Mrs. Pearl Blair, Mrs. Gertrude Smith, Mrs. Helen Manley and Mrs. Ethel Elliott.

The Medical Center sponsors Well Baby Clinics, and Pre-School Children's Clinics every second Friday of each month, with the four women on the committee serving as nurses aides. Mrs. Mary Whitfield, Lonaconing, public health nurse for the Lonaconing-Midland area has charge. Dr. Frank Harriet of Frostburg is the examining physician. Mrs. Margaret Hanson, Frostburg public health nurse has charge of charts, weights and measurements and succeeds Mrs. Lois Jackson who served in the clinic for a number of years.

The Medical Center is located at the Mrs. Agnes Reed Ewald building on Railroad Street near the fire hall. With the cooperation of Mrs. Ewald, two churches and other organizations of Midland, the center committee is able to carry on one of the finest and most needed projects the community has ever undertaken.

At the center, children receive excellent examination and are immunized against diphtheria and whooping cough and are vaccinated in preparation to start to school. The clinic is also a great saving financially and saves the parents traveling to Lonaconing and Frostburg to doctors there. The community of over nine hundred people has no services of a community doctor.

David Williams and members of this committee extend their thanks and appreciation to all groups of people who have made contributions.

The committee hopes for continued contributions in the future to carry on the fine work the community needs so much.

The center is one of the finest equipped in the county. Contributing organizations include:

St. Joseph's Catholic Church, Sodality, WSCS and Bible Class of Grace Methodist Church, Midland Fire Company, American Legion, Tiago Tribe of Red Men, Junior OAM, Knights of Pythias No. 111, Myrtle Temple No. 2 Pythian Sisters, Midland Homemakers Club, Ladies Auxiliary to the Fire Company, Ladies Auxiliary of American Legion, and Pocahontas Auxiliary to the Red Men.

Knowing that if you are ever hospitalized you can obtain free blood because of this program which is carried out in Allegany County, makes everyone realize the importance of giving blood for the continuance of this program. Mayor Virgil Alexander reminds residents.

Colored slides depicting the work of the Lutheran Synod of Maryland in its many phases will be shown. The pastor, Rev. William J. Yingling, will preside at the meeting. Refreshments will be served by the four retiring church councilmen who are Messrs. Clifford Crowe, Paul Larue, Everett Lemmert and George Lemmert.

RHEUMATIC FEVER Victim Improves — LONAONING — Billy Ravenscroft, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Ravenscroft, 6 Scotch Hill, Lonaconing, is improving at his home after being a patient in Miners Hospital for rheumatic heart treatment.

Oakland Man Charged With Murder Intent

Howard J. Martin, 29, Is In County Jail

OAKLAND—A 29-year-old local man was booked Saturday on a charge of assault with intent to murder as an aftermath to an early Friday morning episode at Crellin.

Garrett County Sheriff Paul Fisher said a warrant was obtained and served on Howard J. Martin Saturday in the Garrett County jail.

Sheriff Fisher reported Martin was arrested after Luther Harman, 40, of Oakland, was found unclothed on a porch of a private home in Crellin, suffering from knife wounds and exposure.

Harman is a patient in Garrett County Memorial Hospital for treatment of knife wounds on his back and scalp, and for frostbite. The sheriff said Harman is in fair condition.

The sheriff reported he received a telephone call about 3 a. m. Friday from a Crellin woman saying a naked man was on her front porch.

Sheriff Fisher and Deputy Sheriff James Frantz went to the scene and found Harman unclothed, except for his socks. The woman had covered him with a blanket. After searching the area, Sheriff Fisher said he and his deputy found an old overcoat which had been given Harman earlier in the morning by a resident of the Crellin area.

Harman was described as being "frozen stiff" by the officers who said they estimated he had been unclothed in the freezing weather for about three or four hours.

During the time the sheriff and his deputy were taking Harman to the hospital, Trooper Robert Henlin was investigating the report of another man on a porch of a home about five miles away.

This man turned out to be Martin, the sheriff added. During questioning yesterday, the accused man refused to answer any query.

The Garrett County law enforcement officer said his preliminary investigation has indicated the two men had been in a car which ran off the road into a snow plow.

The area around the car showed signs of a struggle.

Sunshine Girls Aid Dimes March

LONAONING—Victory Council No. 1 Pythian Sunshine Girls sold "Polio" balloons on Saturday to raise funds for the Lonaconing March of Dimes.

The group of girls had the balloon campaign on Main street and also made a canvass to homes in the community to obtain funds for the March of Dimes drive.

A bake sale was held Saturday by the Lonaconing Women's club at Eichhorn's furniture store to raise funds for three of the drives to which they contribute, the March of Dimes, the Red Cross and the Heart fund.

Garrett Voting Device Question Still Tangled

OAKLAND—The Garrett County Board of Commissioners took no action last week on the request of the Board of Election Supervisors for "prompt approval" of the purchase of 36 manual type voting machines from the Automatic Voting Machine Corporation of Jamestown, N. Y., for $1,374 for each of a home about five miles away.

The Election Board notified the commissioners by letter of their decision. It was signed by William L. Gibson, president of the board, and Francis W. Sanders, member. The third member of the board, William O. Treacy, did not sign the letter.

The Election Board letter also contained seven details of the Automatic Voting Corporation devices which are cited as being superior to the Shoup Voting Machine Company's devices. The major feature cited was horizontal "eye level" listing of candidates.

In an editorial in The Republican, a weekly newspaper published here, it was stated that the voting machine situation is "more and more tangled."

Midland Medical Center Makes Plans For Operation In 1956

Funds Provided By Contributions

MIDLAND — The Midland Medical Center Committee has completed plans for its 1956 operation, and has appealed for continued contributions from assisting organizations.

The committee includes David Williams, president; Magistrate James G. Blair, treasurer; John Devlin Jr., secretary; Thomas S. Taylor, John J. Jeffries, vice presidents; Raymond Bampton, Mrs. Pearl Blair, Mrs. Gertrude Smith, Mrs. Helen Manley and Mrs. Ethel Elliott.

The Medical Center sponsors Well Baby Clinics, and Pre-School Children's Clinics every second Friday of each month, with the four women on the committee serving as nurses aides. Mrs. Mary Whitfield, Lonaconing, public health nurse for the Lonaconing-Midland area has charge. Dr. Frank Hararr of Frostburg is the examining physician. Mrs. Margaret Hanson, Frostburg public health nurse has charge of charts, weights and measurements and succeeds Mrs. Lois Jackson who served in the clinic for a number of years.

The Medical Center is located at the Mrs. Agnes Reed Ewald building on Railroad Street near the fire hall. With the cooperation of Mrs. Ewald, two churches and other organizations of Midland, the center committee is able to carry on one of the finest and most needed projects the community has ever undertaken.

At the center, children receive excellent examination and are immunized against diphtheria and whooping cough and are vaccinated in preparation to start to school. The clinic is also a great saving financially and saves the parents traveling to Lonaconing and Frostburg to doctors there. The community of over nine hundred people has no services of a community doctor.

David Williams and members of this committee extend their thanks and appreciation to all groups of people who have made contributions.

The committee hopes for continued contributions in the future to carry on the fine work the community needs so much.

The center is one of the finest equipped in the county.

Contributing organizations include:

St. Josephs Catholic Church Sodality, WSCS and Bible Class of Grace Methodist Church, Midland Fire Company, American Legion, Tiago Tribe of Red Men, Junior O.U.A.M., Knights of Pythias No. 111, Myrtle Temple No. 2 Pythian Sisters, Midland Homemakers Club, Ladies Auxiliary to the Fire Company, Ladies Auxiliary of American Legion, and Pocahontas Auxiliary to the Red Men.

St. Paul's Lutheran Will Meet Wednesday

FROSTBURG — The annual congregational meeting of St. Paul's Lutheran Church will be held Wednesday at 7:30 p. m. in the Sunday School room.

Consideration of the annual reports for 1955 and adoption of the budget for the current year will be two major items of business. Election of four men to the church council for periods of three years each will also be conducted.

Colored slides depicting the work of the Lutheran Synod of Maryland in its many phases will be shown. The pastor, Rev. William J. Yingling, will preside at the meeting. Refreshments will be served by the four retiring church councilmen who are Messrs. Clifford Crowe, Paul Larue, Everett Lemmert and George Lemmert.

Officers Thwart Bank Robbery

MARION, Ohio, Jan. 22 (AP)—A band of law enforcement officials surrounded National City Bank here early today and broke up an attempted robbery by three bandits who held a bank cashier and his wife hostage at the cashier's home.

Police identified the three as Duane Charles Packer, 26, Willard Lee Ciola, 20, and Donald Kimberling, 23, all of the Marion area. One of the robbers held assistant cashier Ralph C. Hurr, 66, and his wife Alma, also 66, under gunpoint at the Hurr home while the other two men entered the bank, police said.

The Hurs were tied up in their bedroom and Mrs. Hurr's mother Mrs. Carolyn Sulser, 38, stayed in her room and was not molested by the robbers.

Police said the gunmen made three trips to the bank—once with Hurr—before they finally got the night depository open.

Packer and Ciola were captured in buildings adjoining the bank, and Kimberling surrendered at the Hurr home, police said.

Widow Of Willard, B&O President, Dies

BALTIMORE, Jan. 22 (AP)—Mrs. Daniel Willard, widow of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad's famous president, died today in Hillcrest Nursing home.

Mrs. Willard was 92 and had been in poor health several years. She was the former Bertha Leona Elkins, born in North Troy, Vt. She and Willard were schoolmates. They married in 1885 while he was working as a brakeman on the Soo Line in the Midwest.

Willard died in 1942. Across the span of years starting before World War I he was perhaps the country's most famous railroad president. He served as administrator of all the railroads during World War I.

Ship, 10 Men Lost

Smashup Brings Real Nightmare

SAGINAW, Mich., Jan. 22 (AP)—It was just like a nightmare, only Anthony Ballingash wasn't dreaming.

Ballingash's car skidded on a snow-covered highway four miles west of Saginaw last night and slammed into the side of a Chesapeake & Ohio freight train halted at a crossing during switching operations.

Ballingash, seriously injured was thrown from his car and landed on a second set of tracks. Lying there trying to recover his senses, he thought he heard the chug-chug sound of another train approaching.

It was a train, and it was bearing down on him. Despite his injuries, Ballingash quickly rolled off the track, barely before the train rolled past.

Ballingash, 25, of rural Saginaw, suffered possible chest, back and wrist fractures. His car was crushed between the trains.

Two Huge U.S. Firms Will Expand Abroad

NEW YORK, Jan. 22 (AP)—Two huge U. S. corporations today announced aggressive expansion programs abroad. The Union Carbide & Carbon Corp. plans to erect a new plant in Brazil and Texas Co. will expand its distribution facilities in West Africa.

Union Carbide said it will put up a new polyethylene plant in Cubato, near Santos, Brazil. It will be close to the refinery and ethylene plant of Petrobras, the Brazilian government agency that controls the major refining operations in Brazil.

The Texas Company's plans call

French Political Showdown Near

PARIS, Jan. 22 (AP)—The showdown hours arrive this week for the new French National Assembly when it will decide whether it will create a government good for the East, good for the West, or good for nothing.

About midweek the Assembly, which met last Thursday for the first time, should be well enough organized for President Rene Coty to call in one of the party leaders and ask him to form a Cabinet.

Highest on the list of probabilities is Guy Mollet, head of the Socialist party which is allied with the dynamic Pierre Mendes-France and his Radical Socialist party. Together they have about 150 votes, by no means a majority. But at the moment it is the most cohesive group other than the Communists.

Comes then the big question. Will the Mollet and Mendes-France combination rely on the 151 Communist votes to win confirmation? Or will it be able to attract votes from right-of-center parties, some of whose members may be willing to give the new combination a chance?

These two leaders, among the youngest in French politics, insist their program must be accepted on a "take it or leave it" basis. To invite into their Cabinet more voices from the right, they insist, would create another of the many do-nothing cabinets that have plagued France since the war.

for a broad-scale expansion of distribution facilities in Western Africa Petroleum Co., an African subsidiary.

Traditional Sabbath Calm Reigns In Divided Church

NEW YORK, Jan. 22 (AP)—Traditional Sabbath dignity reigned today at services in Brooklyn's embattled Church of the Holy Trinity, with only a slight backwash from last Sunday's commotion.

The Rev. William Howard Melish, the church's controversial pastor, held early morning and 11 a.m. services amid churchly calm.

But several detectives sat at the latter service with the congregation, numbering about 300. Outside the stately edifice some 100 persons gathered—curious to see if anything would happen. There were no demonstrations.

Last Sunday the Rev. Mr. Melish, now facing a court battle to stay on at the 102-year-old church, engaged in rival, simultaneous services with the bishop-appointed Rev. Robert Thomas.

It was a stormy affair. News-men, photographers and detectives roamed the premises. Vestrymen spoke out against fellow vestrymen, and parishioners joined in the general verbal squabble.

The Rev. Mr. Melish did not mention today last week's inci-

Officers Thwart Bank Robbery

MARION, Ohio, Jan. 22 (AP)—A band of law enforcement officials surrounded National City Bank here early today and broke up an attempted robbery by three bandits who held a bank cashier and his wife hostage at the cashier's home.

Police identified the three as Duane Charles Packer, 26, Willard Lee Ciola, 20, and Donald Kimberling, 23, all of the Marion area. One of the robbers held assistant cashier Ralph C. Hurr, 66, and his wife Alma, also 66, under gunpoint at the Hurr home while the other two men entered the bank, police said.

The Hurrs were tied up in their bedroom and Mrs. Hurr's mother, Mrs. Carolyn Sulser, 88, stayed in her room and was not molested by the robbers.

Police said the gunmen made three trips to the bank—once with Hurr—before they finally got the night depository open.

Packer and Ciola were captured in buildings adjoining the bank, and Kimberling surrendered at the Hurr home, police said.

Widow Of Willard, B&O President, Dies

BALTIMORE, Jan. 22 (AP)—Mrs. Daniel Willard, widow of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad's famous president, died today in Hillcrest Nursing home.

Mrs. Willard was 92 and had been in poor health several years. She was the former Bertha Leona Elkins, born in North Troy, Vt. She and Willard were schoolmates. They married in 1885 while he was working as a brakeman on the Soo Line in the Midwest.

Willard died in 1942. Across the span of years starting before World War I he was perhaps the country's most famous railroad president. He served as administrator of all the railroads during World War I.

Smashup Brings Real Nightmare

SAGINAW, Mich., Jan. 22 (AP)—It was just like a nightmare, only Anthony Ballingash wasn't dreaming.

Ballingash's car skidded on a snow-covered highway four miles west of Saginaw last night and slammed into the side of a Chesapeake & Ohio freight train halted at a crossing during switching operations.

Ballingash, seriously injured was thrown from his car and landed on a second set of tracks. Lying there trying to recover his senses, he thought he heard the chug-chug sound of another train approaching.

It was a train, and it was bearing down on him. Despite his injuries, Ballingash quickly rolled off the track, barely before the train rolled past.

Ballingash, 25, of rural Saginaw, suffered possible chest, back and wrist fractures. His car was crushed between the trains.

Two Huge U.S. Firms Will Expand Abroad

NEW YORK, Jan. 22 (AP)—Two huge U. S. corporations today announced aggressive expansion programs abroad. The Union Carbide & Carbon Corp. plans to erect a new plant in Brazil and Texas Co. will expand its distribution facilities in West Africa.

Union Carbide said it will put up a new polyethylene plant in Cubato, near Santos, Brazil. It will be close to the refinery and ethylene plant of Petrobras, the Brazilian government agency that controls the major refining operations in Brazil.

The Texas Company's plans call

French Political Showdown Near

PARIS, Jan. 22 (AP)—The showdown hours arrive this week for the new French National Assembly when it will decide whether it will create a government good for the East, good for the West, or good for nothing.

About midweek the Assembly, which met last Thursday for the first time, should be well enough organized for President Rene Coty to call in one of the party leaders and ask him to form a Cabinet.

Highest on the list of probabilities is Guy Mollet, head of the Socialist party which is allied with the dynamic Pierre Mendes-France and his Radical Socialist party. Together they have about 150 votes, by no means a majority. But at the moment it is the most cohesive group other than the Communists.

Comes then the big question. Will the Mollet and Mendes-France combination rely on the 151 Communist votes to win confirmation? Or will it be able to attract votes from right-of-center parties, some of whose members may be willing to give the new combination a chance?

These two leaders, among the youngest in French politics, insist their program must be accepted on a "take it or leave it" basis. To invite into their Cabinet more voices from the right, they insist, would create another of the many do-nothing cabinets that have plagued France since the war.

Traditional Sabbath Calm Reigns In Divided Church

NEW YORK, Jan. 22 (AP)—Traditional Sabbath dignity reigned today at services in Brooklyn's embattled Church of the Holy Trinity, with only a slight backwash from last Sunday's commotion.

The Rev. William Howard Melish, the church's controversial pastor, held early morning and 11 a.m. services amid churchly calm.

But several detectives sat at the latter service with the congregation, numbering about 300. Outside the stately edifice some 100 persons gathered—curious to see if anything would happen. There were no demonstrations.

Last Sunday the Rev. Mr. Melish, now facing a court battle to stay on at the 102-year-old church, engaged in rival, simultaneous services with the bishop-appointed Rev. Robert Thomas.

It was a stormy affair. News-men, photographers and detectives roamed the premises. Vestrymen spoke out against fellow vestrymen, and parishioners joined in the general verbal squabble.

The Rev. Mr. Melish did not mention today last week's inci-

Russia, Italy Set Records In Winter Olympics Preview

Grishin Beats World Mark In Speed Skating

South Korean Takes 1,000 Meeters; Italy Bobsledders Score

By WEBB MCKINLEY

CORTINA D'AMPEZZO, Italy, Jan. 22 (AP)—Russian skaters and Italian bobsledders gave two record-splitting previews today of the 1956 winter Olympic Games on which the curtain rises Thursday.

On the sleek ice of Lake Misurina, the Soviet Union's Eurenij Grishin cracked the world 500 meter speed skating mark with a startling time of 40.2 seconds. It was six-tenths of a second better than the old mark. Other skaters claimed Crishin slightly jumped the gun, although they conceded he would have bettered the old mark anyway.

His teammate and former record holder, Yuri Sergeev, also surpassed his old time, doing 40.4. A third Russian, Rafael Gratch, equalled the record.

American Is Fourth

The Russians took four of the first five places. America's William Carow of Madison, Wis., finished fourth, in 41.3, well ahead of Russia's Viktor Kopytin, who was fifth.

The Russians did not enter the two events of the Misurina trials, properly named "a day of the records."

The South Korean Chang Yung won the 1,000 meter trial in 1:29.5, one-tenth of a second ahead of Eugene Sandvig, of Minneapolis.

Van't Oever of Holland took the 3,000 meters in a fast 4:56.6, beating out French, South Korean, Austrian, Italian, Canadian and United States competition.

While the Russians were showing their awesome skating strength, Italian bobsledders were careening down Cortina's Olympic run in record times for two and four-man sleds.

Uberto Dalla Costa, jet pilot in the Italian air force, did the 1,700 meters of twists and turns in 1:22.79, lowering the course record for two-man bobs by nine one-hundredths of a second.

"This is harder than piloting a jet," said the tall, graying Dalla Costa as he stepped grinning from his sled.

A few moments later, his teammate, Dino de Martin, took a four-man sled down in 1:19.52, lowering the old mark by 1.65 seconds.

These two performances convinced many that the Italians who know this run intimately, cannot be beaten in the Olympics. However, America's top four-man driver, Art Tyler of Rochester, N.Y., did not work out today. Nor did America's No. one pilot in the two-man sled, Bud Washbond of East Hartford, Conn.

Duke Soph Breaks 32-Year-Old Mark For Indoor "100"

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22 (AP)—The United States today boasted in Dave Sime a brand new threat for the Olympic sprint event; a fellow who up until 18 months ago had confined all his running to chasing around in the outfield.

Sime—it rhymes with "Jim"—set a new indoor record for the 100-yard dash in the Evening Star Games last night by sprinting the distance in 9.5 seconds.

The old indoor record of 9.8 for the distance, as recognized by the Amateur Athletic Union, was set by Louis Clarke at Baltimore in 1924.

Sime also swept the 70 and 80 yard sprints, beating Olympic champ Andy Stanfield and Olympic hopeful Rod Gratch. Sime's time in the 80 yards was 8 seconds flat. His time of 7 seconds in the 70 broke a meet record.

To prove the inconsistency in track, he failed to qualify in the dash events at the Philadelphia Inquirer games the previous night.

Sime, 6 feet 3, is a redhead from Fair Lawn, N.J., and a sophomore at Duke University. Until he entered Duke under a baseball scholarship—he's a centerfielder—Sime had never raced competitively.

Betsy Rawls Wins

TAMPA, Fla., Jan. 22 (AP)—Betsy Rawls shot brilliant, gambling golf for a four-under-par 71 today, shoving past faltering Patty Berg and winning the $5,000 Tampa Women's Open by five strokes.

Miss Berg soared to an 80 in today's final round.

Miss Rawls, from Spartanburg, S.C., improved in every round, shooting 75-74-73-71—293. She was second after 54 holes. Miss Berg wound up with 298.

Skater Is Injured

A 32-point performance by Guard Robert Shaw sparked unbeaten St. Frances of Keyser to its 7th victory of the season in the Catholic Youth Basketball League as Coach "D. E." Cessare's aggregation handed St. Peter's of Westernport its ninth straight setback yesterday on the Potomac State College court in Keyser. The score was 74-28.

Shaw hung up two season records by ringing up 13 field goals and 32 points and passed Mickey Scaletta, of St. Patrick's, in the battle for the circuit's high scoring honors. The Keyser sharpshooter has amassed 143 points in seven games for an average of 20.4 points. Scaletta now trails the leader with 128 markers in seven contests. In yesterday's contest Shaw meshed six of 10 shots at the foul line.

Melody was runner-up with 14 points, Calamine garnered 12 and R. Wilson 10. Mertz and Davis collected eight points each for St. Peter's.

Bob Mattingly's SS. Peter and Paul quint stayed right on the heels of the leaders by chalking up its 8th win in nine outings at the expense of St. Michael's in a game staged at Frostburg. The score was 49-23.

SS. Peter and Paul suffered its lone setback at the hands of St. Frances, 36-24, at Keyser January 8. They'll meet here in the second game of their series February 2.

Larry Burns and Mike Firlie led the attack for SS. Peter and Paul with 12 and 11 tallies. Jim Sittig was St. Michael's top scorer with eight points.

The St. Mary's at St. Peter's (Oakland) game was postponed.

Tenley Returns

CORTINA D'AMPEZZO, Italy, Jan. 22 (AP)—U.S. Olympic hopes rose today when world figure skating champion Tenley Albright returned to the ice despite her gashed right leg.

Hundreds of curious observers watched the black-clad star skate slowly with her coach, Maribel Vinson, but Tenley tried it a few times by herself.

Souchak's 281 Takes Caliente Golf Tourney

Cops $2,000 Prize; Bolt Trails By Two

TIJUANA, Mexico, Jan. 22 (AP)—Power-hitting Mike Souchak, with a gallant come-from-behind performance, captured the $12,500 Caliente Open Golf Tournament today with a final round 71 and a 72-hole score of 281.

The popular Souchak clipped one stroke off par 72 and was seven under regulation figures for the distance in a rousing duel with Tommy Bolt, the leader by two strokes going into the final round.

The scene was the Tijuana Country Club, with par 36-72 and the battleground was stretched out to its full championship 7,400 yards.

Bolt finished two strokes behind Souchak, registering a disappointing 75 for 283.

Souchak collected $2,200 top money for his four days of labor and his rounds of 65-71-74-71.

Tied at third at 284 were Marty Furgel, with a last-round 73; Mike Fetichuk, with a 71; and the amateur surprise of the tournament, Rod Fumeth of Spokane, Wash., who opened up in the first round with a 67 and finished today with a 71.

Gene Littler, with a 73, John Barnum, with a 71, and Bill Casper of nearby Chula Vista, with a 70, were deadlocked at 285.

Souchak's 281 broke an ancient record for the tournament established in 1934 by Wiffy Cox, when the Caliente Open was one of the plushiest events in the world. The mark was 282 and this was the first time for the Caliente Open since 1935.

Combs Frowns On Second Match Race For Nashua, Swaps

LEXINGTON, Ky., Jan. 22 (AP)—Leslie Combs II says that since there's been one match race between Nashua and Swaps, "I see no reason for another."

Combs, who with associates purchased the 4-year-old great from the William Woodward Jr., estate, said in a statement last night:

"Personally, I have never been in favor of match races, but had Nashua and Swaps not run a match race, I would be agreeable to one."

"However, since this was already taken place, I see no reason for another."

"Nashua has his engagements planned and I hope that in some of these races he and Swaps will meet again."

New Horizons Ahead For U. S. Economy

If anyone has serious doubts about which way the nation's economy is headed, they should be erased by twin announcements made by the heads of two of the nation's largest industrial corporations.

Harlow H. Curtice, president of General Motors, announced that his firm is planning a billion-dollar capital expenditures program for the current year, the biggest in its history. At the same time Benjamin F. Fairless, president of the American Iron and Steel Institute, announced that the steel industry is embarking on a three-year expansion program at the rate of a billion dollars a year. This program will boost the nation's steel-making capacity by 15 million tons. That makes it the biggest in history, even overshadowing the 10 million ton expansion ordered by the federal government during World War II.

No industry and no manufacturing concern gambles billions in this manner unless it has carefully calculated all the risks and is reasonably sure that it is going to get its money back in the form of increased sales. What makes the programs all the more impressive is that the automobile industry, the nation's largest consumer of steel, has just completed the most prodigious year in its history.

Both industries might look for a slowdown in sales and production in 1956, and Mr. Curtice, in fact, does not expect this year's figures to match the record-breaking ones of 1955.

But he, and Mr. Fairless, have enough confidence in the future strength and prosperity of the American economy to pour billions more into plants for producing more steel, more motor cars, and more of the other goods that they are sure America's expanding economy is going to need in the years ahead.

It is this spirit, this faith in the future, this willingness to take risks that has made this country strong and prosperous and the greatest producer of material goods in mankind's long history. Today it is once again opening new horizons.

The Distant Turmoil

The question asks itself persistently as I lie here, half cabbage, why it is necessary for some middle-aged men, who are ordinarily decent, good husbands and loving fathers, to make a night of it by calling each other five-lettered Anglo-Saxon names, speaking of each other as one does not speak of the most vulgar churl? There must be some fun in all this, although I have never discovered precisely what it is. In my youth, the presence of only one woman would call a halt to the language for which mother used to wash the little boy's mouth with yellow soap, but nowadays the lady does not seem to mind and the gentleman has accepted equality among the sexes as lowering the standards of both.

Naturally, I have not been everywhere and do not know how universal the cult of vulgarity is, but I have noted that authors possess a paucity of felicity in circumventing ugly language in very popular books. Yet, George Bernard Shaw managed, to become the most modern of moderns, the father of all modernism, without devoting himself to the language of a peasant describing his colleague-peasant as something born of a dog. For after all, many a bitch is a lady, albeit a canine one, and to insult her by attributing certain humans to her breed would be to lower respect for the purity of her champion race. The various societies which protect the breed of dogs should protest the inaccurate use of the term applying canine parenthood to certain humans.

I have often wondered at that purely American invention the Em Cee, as it is called. This is a fellow who is supposed to warm you up; to make you applaud when you don't want to applaud; he is a cayenne peppery sort of individual whose job is to keep the show on the road, as the expression goes, although the show died before it was born. The Em Cee is a pest at a banquet because he prolongs the agony longer than necessary. He introduces all the guests on the dais and everybody knows who they are before they are introduced.

In fact, the reason they sit on the dais is because they are known to all present. They are the big shots of the particular group. The Em Cee makes sure that they are adequately applauded by leading the applause from the lectern with the microphone fully on. And if the applause dies down, he shouts, "Give the so and so a hand!" That not only gets more applause but a big laugh, and if ladies are in the room, they try to blush, but have lost the art.

It is all good-natured fun but reflects a state of mind and as I lie here, separated from my data, forbidden to work, a cabbage on a hospital bed, I cannot help but wonder what the state of mind of our country is that out of 165,000,000 people, it comes up with so little quality in its leadership. I do not know for sure but I cannot believe that Frank Lausche of Ohio would preside at a pleasant party where men call each other phallic names in love and affection and to be good sports. Perhaps that is why he so astounded the country on his "Meet the Press" appearance where he answered questions with the obvious candor. Is it true, he was asked, that you, the Democratic Governor of Ohio, voted for Robert A. Taft for United States Senator?

Every little tricky politician could get out of that one, even by lying. The ballot is secret and how one votes is his own affair. Lausche might even have made a principle of it and said he never discusses how he votes. But he answered simply and beyond cavil that he had voted for Taft because he voted for the United States of America, not for man or party. What a moral position in this paltry age!

All kinds of thoughts come into one's head in this cubicle of a room where I spend all my time in the loneliness of a retreat. Perhaps, now that I am not to die this time unless complications set in, a retreat is what is indicated where one can think about the ordinary things of life that go so screwy in the era of freedom without respect, of vulgarity elevated to a symbol of good-fellowship. Every day, I read regularly the pronouncements on Grace Kelly by her mother and on Prince Grimaldi by his confessor and wonder how the world ever managed to get along without press agents and ghost writers. There must have been privacy somewhere, or it would not have been guaranteed us in the Constitution.

Ike Wrestling With Problem Of Second Term

WASHINGTON

The first general press conference since the President's heart attack was a decidedly reassuring occasion.

Dwight D. Eisenhower looked well. His color was good. His grin was as infectious as ever. He was not treated lightly by his questioners; yet he handled the questions with the sure mastery that he has gradually developed since the early days when press conferences were so obviously grave ordeals for him.

To be sure, the President seemed to lack a little of his old bounce and fast-striding energy when he entered the crowded chamber. The pouches under his eyes were noticeably heavier. The eyes themselves, when he did not laugh or smile, seemed restless and even a little troubled. Yet the total impression conveyed was one of vigor and assurance.

With a difficult year ahead, in which governmental paralysis can be appallingly dangerous, it was deeply encouraging to see the President with his hand again firmly on the helm.

But it is quite another question, whether this impression should also reassure the Republican leaders and all the millions of others who so strongly hope that the President will decide to run again. The distinction between Eisenhower's present state and his future great decision was underlined, as it were, by his telegram permitting his name to be entered in the New Hampshire primary. Careful study should be given to the language that he used about his own condition, which is as follows:

"It would be idle to pretend that my health can be wholly restored to the excellent state in which the doctors believed it to be in mid-September (just before the attack) . . . My future life must be carefully regulated to avoid excessive fatigue. My reasons for obedience to the medical authorities are not solely personal; I must obey them out of respect for the responsibilities I carry."

Here, once again, and in even stronger tones, was the same note the President had struck in the special conference on his health that he granted the small group of reporters at Key West.

In Key West he had intimated that it would be wrong for him to run again if he did not have a good chance of serving out a full second term, because "It is a very critical thing to change governments in this country at a time that is unexpected." Now he was adding the merit statement that despite his mercifully splendid recovery, the fact had to be faced that his heart attack had in some measure permanently impaired his health.

Put the two together, then, and it becomes rather clear what the President is asking himself, and what he will ask his doctors when they complete their final check-up. He will ask, not whether he is out of the immediate woods, but whether a man in his condition is likely to survive the heavy pressures of the Presidency for another full term.

It is a grim question, not easy or pleasant to discuss. The most authoritative study, based on case histories of 390 cardiac patients, seems to have been made by Doctors David R. Cole, Evelyn B. Singian and Louis N. Katz of the

GOP Leaders Grasp At Any Hopes Of Ike's Running For Second Term

By Drew Pearson

WASHINGTON—Despite President Eisenhower's statement that his health never would permit him to be as vigorous as before, Republican Congressional leaders continue to be optimistic that he will run again.

What they base their optimism on is a bit hazy. But one clue they cite is one of their own recent meetings with the President at which he made this quip about running again:

"I've just been given a new reason why I should run again," the President said.

Continuing, he said that someone had told him that if he could not run in November then he should resign now.

Republican leaders who were present jumped at the conclusion that if Ike was physically able to continue in office until November, he would be physically able to remain in office thereafter.

Under The Dome

The two Senators from Arizona, Democrat Carl Hayden and Republican Barry Goldwater, have made a secret deal to help each other get elected. The deal was put across by Hayden's administrative assistant, Darrel St. Claire. It provides that Goldwater will give only token support to the GOP candidate against Hayden this year and Hayden will give only token support to the Democratic candidate against Goldwater. . . . This is a big break for Goldwater. Nobody could defeat Hayden, but Goldwater is in danger. . . . Sen. Prescott Bush, Republican of Connecticut, is also in danger. He is bug-eyed for fear Gov. Abe Ribicoff of Connecticut will run against him, even wants Ribicoff appointed to the Supreme Court—if there is a vacancy. So far there isn't. . . . Ike is slow at learning the great game of politics. He has appointed Dr. Donald Bridges, brother of the sometimes critical GOP Senator from New Hampshire, Styles Bridges, as head of the religious section of the U. S. Information Agency. Senator Bridges has been a constant meat-axer of USIA funds. With his brother on the payroll maybe Styles will be more tolerant.

Civil-Rights Secrecy

Senator Douglas of Illinois has withdrawn his threat to attach an anti-lynching rider to the Natural Gas Bill. The Senate Parliamentarian warns him that any civil-rights amendments would be thrown out as not germane to natural gas. . . . The little bloc of civil-rights Congressmen is getting more secret about its backstage huddles than Ike was about Adolph Wenzell's operation inside Dixon-Yates. Those who met in Congressman Hugh Scott's office to discuss an anti-lynching bill recently were Jimmy Roosevelt; Charlie Diggs, Negro Congressman from Detroit; John Dingell, newly elected Democrat from Detroit; and Dick Bolling, Kansas City Democrat; also the following Republicans: Tom Pelly (Wash.), John Heselton (Mass.), plus Scott. Their guarded statements after discussion sounded as if they had been discussing the latest secret guided missile. . . . Worst diehard opposing any civil-rights legislation is Congressman Forrester of Georgia who holds a key spot on the judiciary committee. . . . Two NAACP workers, Lamar Smith and G. W. Lee, were killed in Mississippi while getting Negroes registered to vote. A third was seriously wounded.

Ice Carnival

Rivalry between the supposedly unified Army, Navy and Air Force now has extended to the St. Paul Ice Carnival. Navy daredevils are planning to steal the show from Air Force daredevils at the Ice Carnival January 29.

Carnival officials originally asked the Air Force Thunder Jets, an aerial acrobatic team, to demonstrate precision flying during the Carnival. But though the Air Force wanted to cooperate, higher-ups in the Defense Department turned the invitation down. Meanwhile, the Navy's daredevil

Prohibition And Driving

By Roger W. Babson

BABSON PARK, Mass. — My father used to say to me: "Roger, avoid the words never and always; also do not put dates on your forecasts." In discussing this unpopular subject of prohibition, I will now observe his advice.

Could Return

First, let me say I am not forecasting the success of the Prohibition party as a political factor. Rather, I am forecasting that one, or both, of the major parties will put some form of prohibition in their platforms. The curse of the liquor traffic may be no different now than 25 years ago; but there is one great difference.

In 1933 when prohibition was overwhelmingly defeated, there were no great industries to put up the funds to continue prohibition, while the great brewers, distillers, and other liquor interests supplied the funds to kill it. Then, however, there were only 20½ million automobiles. Today — with 50 million automobiles — the situation is very different. In the next fight over prohibition, the automobile industry (now the second largest) which includes manufacturers, sales agencies, the great gasoline industry, as well as the owners of property rented by these interests, should heavily support the prohibition cause. And this group is increasing every year as more cars go on the roads. There are now over 225,000 filling stations earning nearly a billion dollars annually.

Methods Of Preventing Accidents

Safety belts, compulsory car inspections, canceling of licenses, and even jailing offenders should help prevent accidents or make them less serious. However, none of these things seem to be effective. The main cause of accidents is with the brain of the driver. Hence, the great importance of insisting upon drivers keeping in line and not passing except where specifically permitted.

The basic reason why drivers disobey traffic rules, crossing lines, driving fast, ignoring intersections and signs, is lack of mental control. People are all too willing to take chances. But civilization has progressed by a constant tempering of this instinct to risk, by education, religion, and laws working toward the development of self-control. This is a very important fact which parents and teachers should recognize.

Liquor And Self-Control

There are three biological effects of drinking. 1. Drinks "pep" one up. Liquor, even in very small amounts, gives people temporary courage to do and say things they otherwise would not. 2. Drinks enable people to forget — but this means forgetting driving rules as well as troubles. 3. Drinks are habit-forming. No one ever expected to become a slave to drink when he started simple social drinking.

Not only are automobiles increasing every year by several million and the population by about 3 million, but the age when young people start to drink has lowered. The cocktail party, along with the above-mentioned factors, has made liquor a national problem which must be conquered. It may get worse before prohibition, in some form, returns; but it is a sure forecast that it will return. Perhaps one plan would be to prohibit sales to those holding drivers' licenses. Even the new four-lane turnpikes do not solve the difficulty, as they develop a "sleepitis."

Will Be Different

How the liquor curse will be handled, I do not know. As my friend, Delcavere King says, it is a problem of the three E's: — Education, Engineering, and Enforcement. The most common suggestion is that we all have a license either to buy liquor or to drive a car. This, however, will not alone solve the cocktail-party danger and the fact that the self-control and judgement of many individuals are not affected by a little liquor — while others are affected almost by the smell of it!

I hope readers will not take this column as propaganda for prohibition, as I believe the person who does not drive a car has a right to drink. However, with 99 being killed every day and one seriously injured every 25 seconds, and these figures constantly increasing, something radical must be done. Also, unless the brewers and distillers themselves "see the handwriting on the wall" and help solve the problem, the securities of such companies face a terrific decline, as happened when prohibition went into effect in 1919.

You're Telling Me!

The singing commercial on radio and television is coming more and more into use, we read. Guess we'll just have to face the music—if that's what you can call it.

Try And Stop Me!

By Bennett Cerf

George Jessel, celebrated after-dinner speaker, had always promised Detroit friends that one day he'd talk to the inmates of the Old Ladies' Hebrew Home there. One day he made good his promise.

He soon had cause to regret his good intentions. The ladies were too old to "dig" his sophisticated patter. Many placidly continued their knitting or rocking; a few even played imaginary cards.

One old lady, however, listened beaming, and nodded her head happily every time he made a point. Georgie found himself orating for her benefit alone. When he had finished, the superintendent brought this old lady up to shake his hand.

"Mrs. Mandelbaum thinks you're a fine gentleman," said the superintendent, "and wants you to know this is the first time in 10 years she regrets she cannot understand a word of English."

He was not treated lightly by his questioners; yet he handled the questions with the sure mastery that he has gradually developed since the early days when press conferences were so obviously grave ordeals for him.

To be sure, the President seemed to lack a little of his old bounce and fast-striding energy when he entered the crowded chamber. The pouches under his eyes were noticeably heavier. The eyes themselves, when he did not laugh or smile, seemed restless and even a little troubled. Yet the total impression conveyed was one of vigor and assurance.

With a difficult year ahead, in which governmental paralysis can be appallingly dangerous, it was deeply encouraging to see the President with his hand again firmly on the helm.

But it is quite another question, whether this impression should also reassure the Republican leaders and all the millions of others who so strongly hope that the President will decide to run again. The distinction between Eisenhower's present state and his future great decision was underlined, as it were, by his telegram permitting his name to be entered in the New Hampshire primary. Careful study should be given to the language that he used about his own condition, which is as follows:

"It would be idle to pretend that my health can be wholly restored to the excellent state in which the doctors believed it to be in mid-September (just before the attack) . . . My future life must be carefully regulated to avoid excessive fatigue. My reasons for obedience to the medical authorities are not solely personal: I must obey them out of respect for the responsibilities I carry."

Here, once again, and in even stronger tones, was the same note the President had struck in the special conference on his health that he granted the small group of reporters at Key West.

In Key West he had intimated that it would be wrong for him to run again if he did not have a good chance of serving out a full second term, because "It is a very critical thing to change governments in this country at a time that is unexpected." Now he was adding the further statement that despite his mercifully splendid recovery, the fact had to be faced that his heart attack had in some measure permanently impaired his health.

Put the two together, then, and it becomes rather clear what the President is asking himself, and what he will ask his doctors when they complete their final check-up. He will ask, not whether he is out of the immediate woods, but whether a man in his condition is likely to survive the heavy pressures of the Presidency for another full term.

It is a grim question, not easy or pleasant to discuss. The most authoritative study, based on case histories of 390 cardiac patients, seems to have been made by Doctors David R. Cole, Evelyn B. Singian and Louis N. Katz of the

Baering Down on The News

By Arthur "Bugs" Baer

There's been a brink or several in the national political sweepstakes for 1956. But it's still a picture as pretty as a cigar butt floating in a cup of cold coffee.

Until the March primaries in New Hampshire both sides are stalling like a wood-burning locomotive in the Petrified Forest.

Nobody is entitled to a gander at your mitt until the chips are down. All that Wilson Mizner remembered of a terrible earthquake in Alaska is that it wrecked the town, killed 70 people and turned over his hole card.

The campaign is a bigger contract than show curtains for Niagara Falls. Both national committees are as cautious as an ostrich with sand in its ears.

Today's the final schedule for Illinois entries. You've got to fish, chop bait or go ashore.

Remember when Kefauver polled a New England blizzard four years ago? He never did locate the sound of those sleigh bells.

GOP Leaders Grasp At Any Hopes Of Ike's Running For Second Term

By Drew Pearson

WASHINGTON—Despite President Eisenhower's statement that his health never would permit him to be as vigorous as before, Republican Congressional leaders continue to be optimistic that he will run again.

What they base their optimism on is a bit hazy. But one clue they cite is one of their own recent meetings with the President at which he made this quip about running again:

"I've just been given a new reason why I should run again," the President said.

Continuing, he said that someone had told him that if he could not run in November then he should resign now.

Republican leaders who were present jumped at the conclusion that if Ike was physically able to continue in office until November, he would be physically able to remain in office thereafter.

Under The Dome

The two Senators from Arizona, Democrat Carl Hayden and Republican Barry Goldwater, have made a secret deal to help each other get elected. The deal was put across by Hayden's administrative assistant, Darrel St. Claire. It provides that Goldwater will give only token support to the GOP candidate against Hayden this year and Hayden will give only token support to the Democratic candidate against Goldwater. . . . This is a big break for Goldwater. Nobody could defeat Hayden, but Goldwater is in danger. . . . Sen. Prescott Bush, Republican of Connecticut, is also in danger. He is bug-eyed for fear Gov. Abe Ribicoff of Connecticut will run against him, even wants Ribicoff appointed to the Supreme Court—if there is a vacancy. So far there isn't. . . . Ike is slow at learning the great game of politics. He has appointed Dr. Donald Bridges, brother of the sometimes critical GOP Senator from New Hampshire, Styles Bridges, as head of the religious section of the U. S. Information Agency. Senator Bridges has been a constant meat-axer of USIA funds. With his brother on the payroll maybe Styles will be more tolerant.

Civil-Rights Secrecy

Senator Douglas of Illinois has withdrawn his threat to attach an anti-lynching rider to the Natural Gas Bill. The Senate Parliamentarian warns him that any civil-rights amendments would be thrown out as not germane to natural gas. . . . The little bloc of civil-rights Congressmen is getting more secret about its backstage huddles than Ike was about Adolphe Wenzell's operation inside Dixon-Yates. Those who met in Congressman Hugh Scott's office to discuss an anti-lynching bill recently were Jimmy Roosevelt; Charlie Diggs, Negro Congressman from Detroit; John Dingell, newly elected Democrat from Detroit; and Dick Bolling, Kansas City Democrat; also the following Republicans: Tom Pelly (Wash.), John Heselton (Mass.), plus Scott. Their guarded statements afterward sounded as if they had been discussing the latest secret guided missile. . . . Worst diehard opposing any civil-rights legislation is Congressman Forrester of Georgia who holds a key spot on the judiciary committee. . . . Two NAACP workers, Lamar Smith and G. W. Lee, were killed in Mississippi while getting Negroes registered to vote. A third was seriously wounded.

Ice Carnival

Rivalry between the supposedly unified Army, Navy and Air Force now has extended to the St. Paul Ice Carnival. Navy daredevils are planning to steal the show from Air Force daredevils at the Ice Carnival January 29. Carnival officials originally asked the Air Force Thunder Jets, an aerial acrobatic team, to demonstrate precision flying during the Carnival. But though the Air Force wanted to cooperate, higher-ups in the Defense Department turned the invitation down. Meanwhile, the Navy's daredevil

Prohibition And Driving

By Roger W. Babson

BABSON PARK, Mass. — My father used to say to me: "Roger, avoid the words never and always; also do not put dates on your forecasts." In discussing this unpopular subject of prohibition, I will now observe his advice.

Could Return

First, let me say I am not forecasting the success of the Prohibition party as a political factor. Rather, I am forecasting that one, or both, of the major parties will put some form of prohibition in their platforms. The curse of the liquor traffic may be no different now than 25 years ago; but there is one great difference.

In 1933 when prohibition was overwhelmingly defeated, there were no great industries to put up the funds to continue prohibition, while the great brewers, distillers, and other liquor interests supplied the funds to kill it. Then, however, there were only 20½ million automobiles. Today — with 50 million automobiles — the situation is very different. In the next fight over prohibition, the automobile industry (now the second largest) which includes manufacturers, sales agencies, the great gasoline industry, as well as the owners of property rented by these interests, should heavily support the prohibition cause. And this group is increasing every year as more cars go on the roads. There are now over 225,000 filling stations earning nearly a billion dollars annually.

Methods Of Preventing Accidents

Safety belts, compulsory car inspections, canceling of licenses, and even jailing offenders should help prevent accidents or make them less serious. However, none of these things seem to be effective. The main cause of accidents is with the brain of the driver. Hence, the great importance of insisting upon drivers keeping in line and not passing except where specifically permitted.

The basic reason why drivers disobey traffic rules, crossing lines, driving fast, ignoring intersections and signs, is lack of mental control. People are all too willing to take chances. But civilization has progressed by a constant tempering of this instinct to risk, by education, religion, and laws working toward the development of self-team, the Blue Angels, didn't bother to ask the Defense Department for permission, but went ahead and agreed to stage aerial acrobatics for the Ice Carnival. Since the Blue Angels had already accepted the Defense Department gave them official permission to go ahead. As a result, the Air Force stunt fliers will be grounded while the Navy's Blue Angels perform.

Washington Pipeline

Since Secretary Dulles has called U. S. Ambassador Byrnoade back from Egypt to advise on the Near East during the Eden-Eisenhower conference, he might also call back Edward B. Lawson, ambassador to Israel. Byrnoade is considered very pro-Arab, Lawson is friendly to Israel. The Eden conference should have a balanced picture. . . . Senators Knowland, Bridges, et al, the right-wing Republicans, are getting some handy ammunition against foreign aid from the General Accounting Office. GAO has done a country-by-country survey of foreign aid and come up with evidence of some minor mismanagement. Eisenhower opponents in the Senate intend to use these in their battle against foreign aid. . . . General Ridgway ain't said nothin' yet. His next installment in The Saturday Evening Post really lets Secretary of Defense Wilson have it. . . . The Democrats have coined a new slogan for the Republicans who boast they are the party of Abraham Lincoln. The Democrats now call them "the party of Lincoln—and Cadillac." . . . Adlai Stevenson has been advised by Sen. Lyndon Johnson and Speaker Sam Rayburn to stay out of the natural gas fight. It looks as if he is following that advice. . . . A move has developed inside the Air Force to reverse the trial of Gen. Billy Mitchell, father of the Air Force. Under military procedure it's possible for any court martial to be corrected if it can be proved an injustice was done. Certainly this was the case with Billy Mitchell. . . . One event in his career Gen. Douglas MacArthur would like to forget is that he served on the Billy Mitchell court martial and voted against him. . . . Maj. Gen. Byron Gales, former commander of Chamute Field, Illinois, has agreed with the Air Force to plead guilty to Article 15. This would give him a reprimand for alleged favoritism to one insurance company in selling GI insurance.

control. This is a very important factor which parents and teachers should recognize. Liquor And Self-Control There are three biological effects of drinking. 1. Drinks "pep" one up. Liquor, even in very small amounts, gives people temporary courage to do and say things they otherwise would not. 2. Drinks enable people to forget — but this means forgetting driving rules as well as troubles. 3. Drinks are habit-forming. No one ever expected to become a slave to drink when he started simple social drinking. Not only are automobiles increasing every year by several million and the population by about 3 million, but the age when young people start to drink has lowered. The cocktail party, along with the above-mentioned factors, has made liquor a national problem which must be conquered. It may get worse before prohibition, in some form, returns; but it is a sure forecast that it will return. Perhaps one plan would be to prohibit sales to those holding drivers' licenses. Even the new four-lane turnpikes do not solve the difficulty, as they develop a "sleepitis."

Will Be Different How the liquor curse will be handled, I do not know. As my friend, Deleware King says, it is a problem of the three E's: — Education, Engineering, and Enforcement. The most common suggestion is that we all have a license either to buy liquor or to drive a car. This, however, will not alone solve the cocktail-party danger and the fact that the self-control and judgement of many individuals are not affected by a little liquor — while others are affected almost by the smell of it!

I hope readers will not take this column as propaganda for prohibition, as I believe the person who does not drive a car has a right to drink. However, with 99 being killed each day and one seriously injured every 25 seconds, and these figures constantly increasing, something radical must be done. Also, unless the brewers and distillers themselves "see the handwriting on the wall" and help solve the problem, the securities of such companies face a terrific decline, as happened when prohibition went into effect in 1919.

George Jessel, celebrated after-dinner speaker, had always promised Detroit friends that one day he'd talk to the inmates of the Old Ladies' Hebrew Home there. One day he made good his promise.

He soon had cause to regret his good intentions. The ladies were too old to "dig" his sophisticated patter. Many placidly continued their knitting or rocking; a few even played imaginary cards.

One old lady, however, listened beaming, and nodded her head happily every time he made a point. George found himself orating for her benefit alone. When he had finished, the superintendent brought this old lady up to shake his hand.

"Mrs. Mandelbaum thinks you're a fine gentleman," said the superintendent, "and wants you to know this is the first time in 10 years she regrets she cannot understand a word of English."

A call for help came via long distance telephone from Dorothy Malone, who is in Dallas.

Said Dorothy: “Can't you please help me and say that I am not going to marry Scott Brady? I've only been out with him once in several years, and it's appeared in so many columns that I'm madly in love with him.”

“I think Scott is a very nice boy, but there never was any thought of marriage. We're friends and I hope we'll always be friends.”

Here you are, Dorothy. Hope this settles it.

Listen While You Walk

Quiet sounds always go with beauty. There's always something wrong with a noisy walk.

Listen for footsteps. Your own footsteps as you walk. Unless your walk is near-perfect, its sounds will give you away. Only when there's little echo to your steps can you be sure your carriage in motion is as beautiful as you want it to be.

Is it a clomp-clomp sound you hear, or a shuffling sound? Both say clearly that you do not walk with a graceful combination of good posture and a smooth roll of motion from the heel to the tip of your toe, that you're very far indeed from the perfection of the model's glide-walk. And it's harder to walk the wrong way. You're wasting a lot of effort that can so much better be used to cultivate the light step that's so wonderfully graceful to watch. Here's how to start:

First, put on your snugest high-heeled shoes. Find a hard-surfaced floor. Next, check your standing posture. Are your shoulders relaxed? Is your back straight? Line your back flat up straight against a wall to make sure.

Now, walk around the room, overdoing knee motion so that with each step you lift your foot several inches off the floor. As you step on the floor, place the entire surface

Favors Canal Parkway

To the Editor of The News
Sir:
As a lifelong resident, taxpayer and voter of this county, I would like to express my feelings relative to the building of a modern highway on the bed of the old C & O Canal from Cumberland to Washington.

First, I wish to congratulate U. S. Senator J. Glenn Beall for his great efforts to secure this highway. He deserves the praise of every citizen of this county, as well as Garrett County.

No public improvement would mean as much for our city and county as this proposed highway. The Chamber of Commerce, the Junior Association of Commerce, the mayors and council of all incorporated cities in this county, as well as businessmen; the Allegany Trades Council, which represents the working men in all branches of trade in this county, should get behind Senator Beall and help him all they possibly can.

Just think what it would mean to Cumberland and Western Maryland, and to have hundreds of thousands of tourists, going from Cumberland to Washington on a low grade, eliminating entirely the crossing of all of the large and dangerous mountains east of our city on Route 40.

From the west, tourists would travel the super highway to Bedford, then to Cumberland and on to Washington with no mountains to cross.

I cannot understand how Secretary of the Interior Douglas McKay gets so much power to say it will not be built. Perhaps he has in mind to “give away a section or two” like the large acreage of the finest timber land in the country, located in Oregon, worth $25,000 an acre, and he sold several hundred acres to the McDonalds of Mobile, Ala., for less than $900, and picnic sites along many of the beautiful groves would provide a real recreation area along the path of the canal all the way to Washington.

Let us all help our Senator Beall 100 per cent to clip the wings of this man McKay and build the highway.

Yours truly,

A call for help came via long distance telephone from Dorothy Malone, who is in Dallas.

Said Dorothy: "Can't you please help me and say that I am not going to marry Scott Brady? I've only been out with him once in several years, and it's appeared in so many columns that I'm madly in love with him."

"I think Scott is a very nice boy, but there never was any thought of marriage. We're friends and I hope we'll always be friends."

Here you are, Dorothy. Hope this settles it.

Snapshots of Hollywood collected at random: Toni Wayne, daughter of Mrs. Josie Saenz Wayne and John Wayne, becomes engaged to David La Cava, nephew of Gregory La Cava, next month.

Dale Robertson and Mary Murphy marry the first week in June. Bolton Mallory, once married to Nancy Carroll, was seriously injured while swimming in a pool in Cuernavaca and is now in a Cuernavaca hospital.

Nat "King" Cole, in tip-top form, sang song after song at Ciro's. The enthusiastic applauders wouldn't let him get off the stage. He told me he and Maria leave for Australia in two weeks.

Ringsiding were Brod Crawford and Lisa Ferraday at table with Joe Drown and Elaine Gignilliat, stunning New Yorker. Larry Finley, tanned and looking much better, brought on his microphone for impromptu interviews.

Rosemary Clooney and Jose Ferrer are cocktailing next Saturday for the Al Morgans. He's the author of "The Great Man."

The Lou Costellos celebrated twenty-two years of marriage on Saturday.

That's all today. See you tomorrow.

Secrets Of Charm

by John Robert Powers

Listen While You Walk

Quiet sounds always go with beauty. There's always something wrong with a noisy walk.

Listen for footsteps. Your own footsteps as you walk. Unless your walk is near-perfect, its sounds will give you away. Only when there's little echo to your steps can you be sure your carriage in motion is as beautiful as you want it to be.

Is it a clonk-clonk sound you hear, or a shuffling sound? Both say clearly that you do not walk with a graceful combination of good posture and a smooth roll of motion from the heel to the tip of your toe, that you're very far indeed from the perfection of the model's glide-walk. And it's harder to walk the wrong way. You're wasting a lot of effort that can so much better be used to cultivate the light step that's so wonderfully graceful to watch. Here's how to start:

First, put on your snuggest high-heeled shoes. Find a hard-surfaced floor. Next, check your standing posture. Are your shoulders relaxed? Is your back straight? Line your back flat up straight against a wall to make sure.

Now, walk around the room, overdoing knee motion so that with each step you lift your foot several inches off the floor. As you step on the floor, place the entire surface of your foot flat, balancing your weight on the ball of your foot and gripping the floor with your toes.

When this is done right, there's hardly a sound to be heard. Step along briskly, back and forth, until there's a natural feel to the whole procedure. Tomorrow night, and the next night, and ten minutes every night for a while, practice until you make this quiet and beautiful walk another of your charming assets.

Favors Canal Parkway To The Editor Of The News

As a lifelong resident, taxpayer and voter of this county, I would like to express my feelings relative to the building of a modern highway on the bed of the old C & O Canal from Cumberland to Washington.

First, I wish to congratulate U. S. Senator J. Glenn Beall for his great efforts to secure this highway. He deserves the praise of every citizen of this county, as well as Garrett County.

No public improvement would mean as much for our city and county as this proposed highway. The Chamber of Commerce, the Junior Association of Commerce, the mayors and council of all incorporated cities in this county, as well as businessmen; the Allegheny Trades Council, which represents the working men in all branches of trade in this county, should get behind Senator Beall and help him all they possibly can.

Just think what it would mean to Cumberland and Western Maryland, and to have hundreds of thousands of tourists, going from Cumberland to Washington on a low grade, eliminating entirely the crossing of all of the large and dangerous mountains east of our city on Route 40.

From the west, tourists would travel the super highway to Bedford, then to Cumberland and on to Washington with no mountains to cross.

I cannot understand how Secretary of the Interior Douglas McKay gets so much power to say it will not be built. Perhaps he has in mind to "give away a section or two" like the large acreage of the finest timber land in the county.

highway, in case of invasion. The scenery is lovely down this valley. Fishing, boating, skating and picnic sites along many of the beautiful groves would provide a real recreation area along the path of the canal all the way to Washington.

Let us all help our Senator Beall 100 per cent to clip the wings of this man McKay and build the highway.

A proper vacuum cleaner brush keeps hard-surface floors clean with no trouble at all. It removes lint and dust, also takes up all dirt and grit that otherwise would grind into the surface.

Equity Suit Filed
 An equity suit was filed Friday in Allegany County Circuit Court. The bill of complaint was titled Ernest Lindell Keller vs. Betty Jean Keller.

BLONDIE

MR. DUMSTEAD? BUMSTEAD? BEDSTEAD? NO-- DUMBBED IT SAYS BUMSTEAD HERE. WELL THAT'S WRONG. BLONDIE, WHAT IS OUR LAST NAME?

ARE YOU COMING TO THE HOSPITAL, MR. BRADFORD? CERTAINLY, DOCTOR! I'LL BE RIGHT THERE! BRICK, IT SOUNDS LIKE THAT DOCTOR WANTS TO STIR UP SOME TROUBLE! HE DOESN'T REALLY BELIEVE THE CHILD WAS PICKED UP IN SPACE! CAN YOU BLAME HIM? I WOULDN'T BELIEVE IT, EITHER, IF I HADN'T BEEN ON THE TOP! WELL, WE HAVE TO FIND SOMEONE WHO WILL BELIEVE US, YOU DROP ME OFF AT THE HOSPITAL, THEN GO TO THIS ADDRESS.

BIG SALLY: BRIGANDS! MY MAMFEST FLINNY GAY FANT MACHINERY! AND WHAT KIND OF FARM USES MACHINE GUNS, RIFLES, AMMUNITION? IT IS VIOLATION OF THE MONROE INTERNATIONAL DOCTRINE. IF YOU PLEASE, CAPTAIN CZYZIC, YOU WILL FOLLOW MY DESTROYER TO KEY WEST. EVER HEAR OF THE MONROE DOCTRINE? IF YOU PLEASE, CAPTAIN CZYZIC, YOU WILL FOLLOW MY DESTROYER TO KEY WEST. MEANWHILE: WELL, GENTLEMEN, THIS IS THE NIGHT. THE MUNITIONS SHIP WILL ARRIVE BEFORE DAWN. IN 48 HOURS WE SHOULD BE READY TO STRIKE. VIVA LA REVOLUCION!

GOODNESS, NO!! I'M GOING TO WEAR MY BLUE JEANS. I SHORE AM RELIEVED TO HEAR THAT. MONEY POT. I'M GOING SHOPPING IN THE VILLAGE, LOOWEEZY-- CAN I BRING YOU ANYTHING? LAND O' GOSHEN!! I HOPE YE DONT AIM TO PARADE THRU TH' SETTLEMENT IN THAT SKIMPY COSTUME, TIGER!!

YEP, AND BROTHER BROOKS ALWAYS SEEMS TO BE THE HANDY LAD WHENEVER PAT PULLS A 800-800. WHILE YOU'RE ABOUT IT, WHY NOT THROW IN SOMETHING EXCITING-- LIKE ARSON, MURDER OR BANK ROBBERY? DONT WORRY, IT'LL BE STIFF ENOUGH WITHOUT ANY ADDED FICTION. GEE SANDY HAS MR. BROOKS EVER STOPPED YOU IN YOUR BEACH BUGGY? YOU MEAN IN THIS OLD 1927 SHAMBLES SIX? OH, BOY! IF WE DID, I'D BE FLATTERED!

YEAH, I CAN EASY SEE THAT OFFICER BROOKS IS GIVIN' "LITTLE PAT" MS GUNN A TICKET FOR RECKLESS DRIVIN' OR SOMETHIN'--

JOE IS NOW SETTLED IN HIS MIAMI CAMP TO WIND UP HIS LAST WEEKS OF TRAINING FOR THE DEFENSE OF HIS TITLE AGAINST ART ARLEE.

HEY, JOE-- JUST A MINUTE... OH, HELLO, JIM... HOW'S EVERYTHING OVER AT THE PAPER? ...HOW ABOUT ALL THESE CRACKS THAT ARLEES MAKING ABOUT YOU? AREN'T YOU GOING TO ANSWER THEM? I'LL ANSWER THEM PERSONALLY IN THE RING. FROM NOW ON... LET ME DO TH' TALKIN'... OKAY, KNOBBY... YOU'RE THE BOSS.

SOMEONE HAD TO STOP THAT RICKERING AND GET THEM BACK ON THE MAIN SUBJECT-- YES, BETH, YOU GOT US A NEW SCHOOL. BY GIVING THE SHORTEST, SWEETEST SPEECH THAT I HAVE EVER HEARD!

THE FACTS WERE CLEAR, WE NEEDED A NEW SCHOOL. THE ONLY THING THAT HAD TO BE DONE WAS TO CONVINCE EVERYBODY THAT IT WAS A GOOD INVESTMENT IN THE FUTURE OF OUR TOWN.

WE'D ALL PROUD OF YOU, BETH!... AND NOW THERE REMAINS ONE LAST HURDLE FOR US TO CLEAR-- EH? WHAT HURDLE IS THAT, MARTIN?

YES-- I WAS ASLEEP. YOU HEARD NO NOISE IN THE HALL? I DIDN'T HEAR A THING TILL YOU KNOCKED ON MY DOOR. THE REASON WE KNOCKED-- THIS PIECE OF SHOELACE WAS CAUGHT IN YOUR DOOR. SHOELACE? I'M SURE I DON'T UNDERSTAND.

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE

— Here's how to work it: AXYDLBAAXR is LONGFELLOW

One letter simply stands for another. In this example A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophies, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

THE CRUCIAL question in a great many hands is not whether to ruff a loser in the dummy, but when. The deal below illustrates this point perfectly.

 3 ♠ Pass 4 ♠ Pass
 5 ♠ Pass Pass Pass

North's bidding was rather ambitious, particularly when he went past the three-no-trump level with his raise of South's minor suit, but the hard fact is that three-no-trump would have had no chance whatsoever on a heart opening lead, whereas South did have an excellent play for five clubs. True, the heart lead also would have been lethal against

This gave South the opportunity to develop the play properly, but, unfortunately, all he could see was the chance to ruff a spade in dummy. He cashed the top spades and ruffed a third round. That accomplished, he cashed the ace and king of diamonds and ruffed a diamond, only to be "let down" by East's showing up with a second stopper in the suit. Now there was no hope--two heart tricks had to be conceded.

The spade ruff was vital, of course, but not when South used that play. Priority had to be given to the immediate establishment of the diamond suit for heart discards, or for at least one discard. A 3-3 break of diamonds was not to be expected, so care should have been taken to provide for a 4-2 break. South should have led the top diamonds and ruffed a diamond, then cashed the spades and ruffed the spade. This would have given him the vital extra entry to dummy and permitted a second diamond ruff while retaining full control

AFL-CIO Organizing Survey Under Way

Earl Rider, Hagerstown, general AFL-CIO organizer, was in Cumberland last week to make a preliminary survey of unorganized workers in Allegany County.

He said the county is well organized and that only a few crafts are not affiliated with a labor union.

Rider's survey here was made in connection with the nationwide drive planned by the merged AFL and CIO to organize the unorganized.

Second National Bank Declared Stock Dividend For '55

The annual report of the Second National Bank Board of Directors to be presented to stockholders tomorrow reviews that the bank declared a 25 per cent, or one for four, stock dividend in September, the second such declaration in five years, according to Joseph M. Naughton, president.

In November the new and enlarged quarters were opened and plans announced for its first branch at Cresaptown.

The deposits at the end of 1955 were 5.99 per cent above those at the close of 1954, Naughton reported.

Earnings for 1955 were well ahead of the previous year, but the absorption of certain non-recurring expenditures incidental to construction caused somewhat lower net profits, Naughton said.

In 1954 net earnings available for dividends were $101,367 or $5.07 per share on the capital stock outstanding. The comparable date for 1955 was $88,015 or $4.40 on the present 20,000 shares. The maintenance of the $2 share dividend means a 25 per cent increase in dollar income to the bank's stockholders, Naughton added.

Based on present capitalization the book value of each share of stock increased from $63.62 at the close of 1954 to $67.54 at end of 1955, the statement shows.

During 1955, the bank made 10,306 new loans or renewals after a principal payment of previous loans for the record breaking total of $24,824,760. At the year's end, loans were at a new high, Naughton reported.

South End Ministers Elect

The Rev. Adam E. Grim, minister of Grace Methodist Church, and The Rev. David C. Street, vicar of Holy Cross Episcopal Church, were re-elected president and vice-president respectively of the South Cumberland Ministerial Association following the annual family dinner in the parish hall of the Living Stone Church of the Brethren, Retiring secretary-treasurer, Rev. E. Ellwood Carey, minister of Southminster Presbyterian Church, has been succeeded by Rev. Cornelius R. Davis, pastor of Second Baptist Church.

Following dinner the association heard a financial report on the recent Annual Week of Prayer given by Rev. Frederick J. Eckert, pastor of St. John's Lutheran Church. Approximately 2,500 persons heard the preaching of the Rev. Dr. Clovis G. Chappell. For next year's Annual Week of Prayer the association is contacting the Rev. Dr. Arthur Wentworth Hewitt of Northfield, Mass.

Plans were made for a series of union services to be given every Wednesday night during Lent at a different church of the association, and also for a 3-hour service on Good Friday.

Returns To Base

Pvt. Paul L. Weicht, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Weicht of Rt. 2, Cumberland, has returned to Paris Island, S. C., following an 18-day furlough at home. A 1955 graduate of Flintstone High School, he enlisted in the Marine Corps in October 1955.

ORDER OF PUBLICATION

The object of this suit is to procure a decree of divorce a vinculo matrimonii for the Plaintiff, Samuel Rosenberg, of Allegany County, Maryland, against his wife, Norma H. Rosenberg, defendant, whose last known address was 610 19th St., Brooklyn, New York.

The Bill of Complaint states that on the 14th day of March, 1954, the said Samuel Rosenberg was married to Norma H. Rosenberg, with whom he resided until the 22nd day of May, 1954; that the said Norma H. Rosenberg has abandoned him without any just cause or reason, and that such abandonment has continued without interruption for more than eighteen months and is final and beyond any reasonable expectation of reconciliation; that no children have been born to the parties of this marriage.

It is thereupon this 13th day of January, 1956, ordered by the Circuit Court for Allegany County, Maryland, sitting in Equity, that the Plaintiff cause a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in Allegany County once each week for four successive weeks before the 14th day of February, 1956, giving notice to the said Norma H. Rosenberg of the object and substance of this Bill of Complaint, and warning her to be and appear in this court in person, or by solicitor, on or before the 1st day of March, 1956, to show cause, if any she may have, why a decree ought not to be passed as prayed.

Rotary To Hear Indian Educators

Two visiting educators from India, Kamla K. Chaturvedi and Mrs. Florence Chaudhari, will be guest speakers at tomorrow's noon lunch-meeting of the Rotary Club in Central Y.M.C.A.

Scout Leaders To Be Honored At Dinner

The annual appreciation dinner for adults who are contributing to Boy Scouting and Cubbing will be sponsored by Potomac Council, BSA, Tuesday, February 7, at 6:30 p. m. in St. Mary's Hall, James C. Warden, this city, council president, has announced.

This year the event will be for Scouts, Cubbers and other adults interested in Scouting, Warden explained. Wives will be guests.

In the past, the dinner was for Scouts, Cubs, leaders, their parents and others interested in the movement, but the attendance was so large that this year it has to be confined to adults.

The outstanding attraction will be the speaker, Harry A. Stuhlrehr, assistant to the vice president of U. S. Steel Corporation, Pittsburgh. Stuhlrehr, one of the famous Four Horsemen of Notre Dame, is one of the country's outstanding speakers on the needs of youth today. Warden explained. Several Potomac Council officials heard Stuhlrehr speak at the Region 3, BSA, meeting held in Pittsburgh last summer.

Tickets are available on a "first come, first serve" basis from district chairmen, district commissioners, district committee chairmen, members of the council executive board or from the council office.

Henry Lowery, chairman of the newly combined Cumberland and Frostburg districts which has been called Nemaquin District, is dinner chairman.

He is being assisted by three council executive board members, Mayor Roy W. Eves and Victor D. Heisey of Cumberland and Dr. Thomas Bess of Keyser.

Boyd Transferred To Lorain, Ohio

Leo C. Boyd, 601 Greene Street, chief clerk to the Cumberland Division storekeeper since October 1954 has been promoted by the B&O Railroad Company to be storekeeper at Lorain, Ohio.

He came to Cumberland in May of 1951 from Chicago as chief clerk to the storekeeper at the Bolt and Forge Shops here. Boyd is married to the former Miss Margaret Jane Jolley and she and their son, Jeffrey Michael, will join him in the near future.

Succeeding Boyd is J. L. Cagle, who came here from Benwood, W. Va., where he was chief clerk to the storekeeper for the Wheeling Division. He is formerly from Brunswick where he was employed in the Stores Department.

He and his wife and son are residing at 5 Browning Street.

Shaw Receives Gift From Gov. Stanley

A copy of the "History of the State of Virginia" has been received by Ross F. Shaw, from Governor Thomas B. Stanley.

The Virginia governor sent Shaw the book at the request of Miss Ann Stockdale of Staunton, a member of the Woodrow Wilson Historical Society. Shaw also is a member of that society, and is one of the most active members of the Cresap Society, in which Miss Stockdale and Gov. Stanley have expressed interest.

Work On 1956-57 Tax Bill Under Way

The City Tax Office is starting to work on the tax bills you will get next September.

George E. Davis, city collector, said members of the staff began work last week listing transfers of property forwarded by the County Assessor's Office.

The changes will be used to correct addresses to which the 1956-57 tax statement will be mailed.

Davis said property changes are forwarded, as recorded, by the county.

He emphasized that any taxpayers who make a change in address between now and April 1 should notify the City Tax Office, so records can be corrected.

7 Men Enlist In US Navy

Seven men were enlisted in the US Navy last week at the local recruiting station and have been assigned to Bainbridge for basic training.

The group includes Norman Arthur Carr, 153 Main Street, Ridgeley; William Ray Iliff, 32 Greene Street; Edward Davey, 56 Spring Street, Keyser; James Irvin Michael, Keyser, W. Va.; Roy Kenneth Wolford Jr., Eckhart, Phil Harold Brobeck, a visitor from Golden, Colo.; and James Pietro Scarcelli, Eckhart.

Obtains Beer License

Edward T. Evans has obtained a beer license from the Allegany County Board of Alcoholic Beverages License Commissioners for premises at 15 Powells Lane in Frostburg.

C. M. Sanner To Head County Red Cross Drive

Plans are under way for the 75th anniversary campaign of the American Red Cross, according to Mrs. Harry Beneman, Allegany Chapter Chairman. This is the Diamond Jubilee year of service to the nation by the Red Cross.

The 1956 Red Cross Campaign in Allegany County will be headed by C. M. Sanner, secretary of the Hazelwood Company. Organizational planning for the drive is now in progress at Red Cross headquarters in the Post Office Building. The Advance Gifts Committee will conduct its campaign in February and the general campaign will be in March.

Sanner was chairman of the Classified section in last year's drive and has been active in civic affairs since coming to Cumberland.

He is a member of the board of directors of Central YMCA and is chairman of the board of trustees of the newly organized Construction Industry Insurance Fund of Western Maryland. He is also a member of St. Paul's Lutheran Church and of the Cumberland Rotary Club.

Sanner is an honor graduate of Gettysburg College where he was president of his social fraternity, Phi Sigma Kappa. He served in the Army during World War II as a major in the Headquarters of the 61st Ordnance Group.

His wife is the former Miriam Douglas, and they have three daughters. The Sanners reside in LaVale.

Brotemarkle Gets Contract For New Span

The S. T. Brotemarkle Contracting Company has been awarded the contract to build the bridge in the Narrows that will be the new intersection of Route 36 and Route 40, the State Roads Commission has announced.

The Brotemarkle firm's bid for erecting the bridge and constructing a retaining wall along Wills Creek was $180,819.

The bridge will be built on the east side of the Western Maryland Railway bridge and when the Route 36 modernization program is completed the viaduct under the railroad on the present highway at Homewood Addition will be eliminated, according to G. Bates Chaires, district engineer.

The new intersection will be about a half mile to the east of the present intersection.

Seats Available For Concert

Those who do not purchase season tickets for the concert series sponsored by the Cumberland Music Appreciation Society may buy single admissions at the door of SS. Peter and Paul Hall, starting with the first concert Wednesday 8:15 p. m.

Dates for the six contests presented by the only binocular stereophonic sound system in the U. S. are January 25, February 8 and 22, March 7 and 21 and April 4.

The Chicago Symphony Orchestra will be heard in this Wednesday's concert, playing "Also Spoke Zarathustra" (Richard Strauss), one of the most moving and richly tonal symphonies of modern times. Wagner's "Tannhauser Overture" is the other instrumental offering. A Viennese chorus will sing five numbers including Mozart's "Ave Verum."

Lindner Wins Sweepstakes

John H. Lindner, Shade's Lane, won the 19th annual Maryland honey sweepstakes event at the Maryland State Beekeepers Association annual meeting Saturday night at the St. George Motor Company.

Lindner also won for the best entry of honey or beeswax, which consisted of a box of beeswax candles.

More than 50 beekeepers from all parts of the state attended the event. Joseph M. Steger, county farm agent, gave the address of welcome.

Park Place Church Gets Parking Lot

Workmen from the Baughman Contracting Company, Inc., are clearing a lot just west of Park Place Methodist Church so it can be utilized by the congregation as a parking lot.

George E. Baughman said the work was started last week and should be finished in about 10 days. Eventually the congregation plans to build a parsonage on the lot.

Dirt being removed from the lot is being used for fill purposes in a lot just off Mt. Savage Road near National Highway where it is understood that Super Concrete Company, Inc., plans to build.

The "Mother Lode" region of the United States, principal site of the 1849 gold rush, is in the western foothills of the Sierra Nevada in California.

Flue Fire

LONACONING — A fire alarm sounded Thursday at 11 p. m. to summon Good Will Volunteer Fire Company to a flue fire at the home of James Hutcheson, Beechwood, which was quickly extinguished.

Rep. Hyde Urges Survey Of Potomac

The necessity for a survey and a master plan for the multiple development of all the water resources in the Potomac River watershed was the highlight of the closing of the two-meeting of the Interstate Commission on the Potomac River Basin Friday in Washington.

Rep. DeWitt S. Hyde (R-Md.), who earlier had urged such a comprehensive study in a speech to the basin delegates, is expected to introduce legislation providing funds for the survey.

Such a bill, said State Sen. John I. Rogers, of Keyser and chairman of the Commission, could be "integrated" with legislation recently offered by Rep. Joel T. Broyhill (R-Va.). The Broyhill measure would provide $300,000 for a study of river pollution and a maximum of $10 million for immediate construction of abatement facilities.

The survey desired by the commission would include — besides pollution problems — such matters as water supply, flood control, land-use and recreational development of the watershed.

Committee reports submitted to the commissioners Friday strongly urged the construction of both large and small water storage dams on the Potomac and its feeder streams.

Sen. Wayne Morse (D-Ore.) told the Commission at a dinner meeting that he would support any legislative measure designed to clean up the Potomac and develop its many untapped resources.

Greyhound Walkout Ends

WASHINGTON — A full scale service on Greyhound bus runs to the north and west of Washington will be resumed at 10 a. m. tomorrow.

Approximately 260 union drivers who had stopped work last Tuesday voted to accept company terms to end the walkout. A "majority" vote was reached at a two hour session at the Branchville, Md., fire house.

The terms include an agreement that no disciplinary action will be taken against any drivers unless it can be definitely determined they were leaders of the "illegal strike." Also the case of R. T. Grossnickle of Hagerstown, Md., whose dismissal set off the work stoppage, will be submitted to arbitration.

Educator Dies In Lonaconing

LONACONING — Mrs. Louise (Weisenthal) Bell, 85, a prominent educator and civic leader of this community, died yesterday morning at her home, 90 Douglas Avenue after an extended illness.

She was the widow of Archibald Thomas Bell, of Seattle, Wash., and Lonaconing.

Born in St. Johann, Saarbruecke, Germany, she was a daughter of the late Karl and Louise Petry Weisenthal.

She was educated in schools in Germany, Castle School here, Frostburg Normal School and the University of Maryland.

Mrs. Bell was a former principal of Detmold and Jackson elementary schools here and was the last surviving member of the first teaching staff of old Central High School here.

She was a member of First Presbyterian Church, where she was a former superintendent of the Intermediate Department of the Sunday school.

Active in civic and educational circles, she was a former vice president and secretary of the Lonaconing Civic Club and a former president of the Lonaconing Garden Club.

Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. Margaret Bell Sloan, at home, a member of the staff of Valley High School, and Mrs. Marion B. Stanton, Seattle, and two grandsons, John Karl Bell, Pittsburgh, and Frederick Robertson Sloan Jr., at home. A son, J. Karl Bell, preceded her in death.

The body is at the home where a funeral service will be conducted Tuesday at 2 p. m. Rev. C. H. Goshorn, pastor of First Presbyterian Church, will officiate and burial will be in Oak Hill Cemetery here. The family requests that flowers be omitted.

Regester Firm Will Supervise Sewage Job

Robert T. Regester, consulting engineer for the City of Cumberland for its $2,000,000 sewage treatment plant and the modernization of the city's waterworks at Lake Gordon, will supervise the construction of a $1,500,000 sewage project in Anne Arundel County.

Construction work on the project which will serve 30,000 people between Glen Burnie and Baltimore City, is under way.

Plans prepared by Regester include a major pumping station, a primary sewage treatment plant of 2.5 million gallons capacity and more than five miles of force main and outlet sewer.

Regester's staff will supervise the construction work, to be let under four contracts which will include the laying of a 24-inch steel pipe outlet projecting about 2,000 feet into the Patapsco River, which will be laid underwater by divers.

Firemen Extinguish Fire In Barn Loft

South End Fire Company extinguished a fire in a barn loft at the rear of 1719 Ford Avenue about 6:30 last night, with minor damage to the structure.

The blaze apparently started in an old discarded mattress in the loft of the building which also housed some farm machinery owned by Harry Simpson who occupied the Ford Avenue dwelling. Firemen said the floor and walls were burned but not extensively damaged. They returned to the fire station 35 minutes after receiving the call.

Saturday the South End company put out a blaze which burned curtains and bed clothes at the home of Edward Bechtel, 28 West First Street. The fire apparently started when a cigaret ignited a filled ashtray and spread to the curtains.

AFL-CIO Organizing Survey Under Way

Earl Rider, Hagerstown, general AFL-CIO organizer, was in Cumberland last week to make a preliminary survey of unorganized workers in Allegany County.

He said the county is well organized and that only a few crafts are not affiliated with a labor union.

Rider's survey here was made in connection with the nationwide drive planned by the merged AFL and CIO to organize the unorganized.

Second National Dividend For '55

The annual report of the Second National Bank Board of Directors to be presented to stockholders tomorrow reveals that the bank declared a 25 per cent, or one for four, stock dividend in September, the second such declaration in five years, according to Joseph M. Naughton, president.

In November the new and enlarged quarters were opened and plans announced for its first branch at Cresaptown.

The deposits at the end of 1955 were 5.99 per cent above those at the close of 1954, Naughton reported.

Earnings for 1955 were well ahead of the previous year, but the absorption of certain non-recurring expenditures incidental to construction caused somewhat lower net profits, Naughton said.

In 1954 net earnings available for dividends were $101,367 or $5.07 per share on the capital stock outstanding. The comparable date for 1955 was $88,015 or $4.40 on the present 20,000 shares. The maintenance of the $2 share dividend means a 25 per cent increase in dollar income to the bank's stockholders, Naughton added.

Based on present capitalization the book value of each share of stock increased from $63.62 at the close of 1954 to $67.54 at the end of 1955, the statement shows.

During 1955, the bank made 10,306 new loans or renewals after a principal payment of previous loans for the record breaking total of $24,824,760. At the year's end, loans were at a new high, Naughton reported.

Rotary To Hear Indian Educators

Two visiting educators from India, Kamla K. Chaturvedi and Mrs. Florence Chaudhari, will be guest speakers at tomorrow's noon lunch-meeting of the Rotary Club in Central Y.M.C.A.

Scout Leaders To Be Honored At Dinner

The annual appreciation dinner for adults who are contributing to Boy Scouting and Cubbing will be sponsored by Potomac Council, BSA, Tuesday, February 7, at 6:30 p. m. in St. Mary's Hall, James C. Warden, this city, council president, has announced.

This year the event will be for Scouters, Cubbers and other adults interested in Scouting, Warden explained. Wives will be guests.

In the past, the dinner was for Scouts, Cubs, leaders, their parents and others interested in the movement, but the attendance was so large that this year it has to be confined to adults.

The outstanding attraction will be the speaker, Harry A. Stuhlrehr, assistant to the vice president of U. S. Steel Corporation Pittsburgh. Stuhlrehr, one of the famous "Four Horsemen of Notre Dame," is one of the country's outstanding speakers on the needs of youth today. Warden explained. Several Potomac Council officials heard Stuhlrehr speak at the Region 3, BSA, meeting held in Pittsburgh last summer.

Tickets are available on a "first come, first serve" basis from district chairman, district commissioners, district committee chairmen, members of the council executive board or from the council office.

Henry Lowery, chairman of the newly combined Cumberland and Frostburg districts which has been called Nemaquin District, is dinner chairman.

He is being assisted by three council executive board members, Mayor Roy W. Eves and Victor D. Heisey of Cumberland and Dr. Thomas Bess of Keyser.

South End Ministers Elect

The Rev. Adam E. Grim, minister of Grace Methodist Church and The Rev. David C. Street, vicar of Holy Cross Episcopal Church, were re-elected president and vice-president respectively of the South Cumberland Ministerial Association following the annual family dinner in the parish hall of the Living Stone Church of the Brethren, Retiring secretary-treasurer, Rev. E. Ellwood Carey, minister of Southminster Presbyterian Church, has been succeeded by Rev. Cornelius R. Davis, pastor of Second Baptist Church.

Following dinner the association heard a financial report on the recent Annual Week of Prayer given by Rev. Frederick J. Eckert, pastor of St. John's Lutheran Church. Approximately 2,500 persons heard the preaching of the Rev. Dr. Clovis G. Chappell. For next year's Annual Week of Prayer, the association is contacting the Rev. Dr. Arthur Wentworth Hewitt of Northfield, Mass.

Plans were made for a series of union services to be given every Wednesday night during Lent at a different church of the association, and also for a 3-hour service on Good Friday.

Returns To Base

Pvt. Paul L. Weicht, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Weicht of Rt. 2, Cumberland, has returned to Paris Island, S. C., following an 18-day furlough at home. A 1955 graduate of Flintstone High School, he enlisted in the Marine Corps in October 1955.

Work On 1956-57 Tax Bill Under Way

The City Tax Office is starting to work on the tax bills you will get next September.

George E. Davis, city collector, said members of the staff began work last week listing transfers of property forwarded by the County Assessor's Office.

The changes will be used to correct addresses to which the 1956-57 tax statement will be mailed.

Davis said property changes are forwarded, as recorded, by the county.

He emphasized that any taxpayers who make a change in address between now and April 1 should notify the City Tax Office, so records can be corrected.

NOTICE OF STOCKHOLDERS ANNUAL MEETING

The annual meeting of the stockholders of THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF CUMBERLAND, MARYLAND, will be held in Room 204 of the Fort Cumberland Hotel, Cumberland, Maryland, at 11 a. m. on Tuesday, January 24, 1956, for the election of directors and the transaction of any other business that may properly come before the meeting.

ORDER OF PUBLICATION

The object of this suit is to procure a decree of divorce A. VINCENTO MAT RIMONIL for the Plaintiff, Samuel Rosenberg, of Allegany County, Maryland, against his wife, Norma H. Rosenberg, defendant, whose last known address was 6101 19th St., Brooklyn, New York.

The Bill of Complaint states that on the 14th day of March, 1954, the said Samuel Rosenberg was married to Norma H. Rosenberg, with whom he resided until the 22nd day of May, 1954; that the said Norma H. Rosenberg has abandoned him without any just cause or reason, and that such abandonment has continued without interruption for more than eighteen months and is final and beyond any reasonable expectation of reconciliation; that no children have been born to the parties to this marriage.

It is therupon this 13th day of January, 1956, ordered by the Circuit Court for Allegany County, Maryland, sitting in Equity, that the Plaintiff cause a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in Allegany County once each week for four successive weeks before the 14th day of February, 1956, giving notice to the said Norma H. Rosenberg of the object and substance of this Bill of Complaint and warning her to be and appear in this court in person, or by solicitor, on or before the 1st day of March, 1956, to show cause, if any she may have, why a decree ought not to be passed as prayed.

C. M. Sanner To Head County Red Cross Drive

Plans are under way for the 75th anniversary campaign of the American Red Cross, according to Mrs. Harry Benemer, Allegany Chapter Chairman. This is the Diamond Jubilee year of service to the nation by the Red Cross.

The 1956 Red Cross Campaign in Allegany County will be headed by C. M. Sanner, secretary of the Hazelwood Company. Organizational planning for the drive is now in progress at Red Cross headquarters in the Post Office Building. The Advance Gifts Committee will conduct its campaign in February and the general campaign will be in March.

Sanner is chairman of the Classified section in last year's drive and has been active in civic affairs since coming to Cumberland.

He is a member of the board of directors of Central YMCA and is chairman of the board of trustees of the newly organized Construction Industry Insurance Fund of Western Maryland. He is also a member of St. Paul's Lutheran Church and of the Cumberland Rotary Club.

Sanner is an honor graduate of Gettysburg College where he was president of his social fraternity, Phi Sigma Kappa. He served in the Army during World War II as a major in the Headquarters of the 61st Ordnance Group.

His wife is the former Miriam Douglas, and they have three daughters. The Sanners reside in Lavale.

Seats Available For Concert

Those who do not purchase season tickets for the concert series sponsored by the Cumberland Music Appreciation Society may buy single admissions at the door of SS. Peter and Paul Hall, starting with the first concert Wednesday 8:15 p. m.

Dates for the six contests presented by the only binocular stereo-phonetic sound system in the U. S. are January 25, February 8 and 22, March 7 and 21 and April 4.

The Chicago Symphony Orchestra will be heard in this Wednesday's concert, playing "Also Spoke Zarathustra" (Richard Strauss), one of the most moving and richly tonal symphonies of modern times. Wagner's "Tannhauser Overture" is the other instrumental offering. A Viennese chorus will sing five numbers including Mozart's "Ave Verum."

Boyd Transferred To Lorain, Ohio

Leo C. Boyd, 601 Greene Street, chief clerk to the Cumberland Division storekeeper since October 1954 has been promoted by the B&O Railroad Company to be storekeeper at Lorain, Ohio.

He came to Cumberland in May of 1951 from Chicago as chief clerk to the storekeeper at the Bolt and Forge Shops here. Boyd is married to the former Miss Margaret Jane Jolley and she and their son, Jeffrey Michael, will join him in the new location.

Succeeding Boyd is J. L. Cage, who came here from Benwood, W. Va., where he was chief clerk to the storekeeper for the Wheeling Division. He is formerly from Brunswick where he was employed in the Stores Department.

He and his wife and son are residing at 5 Browning Street.

Shaw Receives Gift From Gov. Stanley

A copy of the "History of the State of Virginia" has been received by Ross F. Shaw, from Governor Thomas B. Stanley.

The Virginia governor sent Shaw the book at the request of Miss Ann Stockdare of Staunton, a member of the Woodrow Wilson Historical Society. Shaw also is a member of that society, and is one of the most active members of the Cresap Society, in which Miss Stockdare and Gov. Stanley have expressed interest.

Park Place Church Gets Parking Lot

Workers from the Baughman Contracting Company, Inc., are clearing a lot just west of Park Place Methodist Church so it can be utilized by the congregation as a parking lot.

George E. Baughman said the work was started last week and should be finished in about 10 days. Eventually the congregation plans to build a parsonage on the lot.

Dirt being removed from the lot is being used for fill purposes in a lot just off Mt. Savage Road near National Highway where it is understood that Super Concrete Company, Inc., plans to build.

The "Mother Lode" region of the United States, principal site of the 1849 gold rush, is in the western foothills of the Sierra Nevada in California.

7 Men Enlist In US Navy

Seven men were enlisted in the US Navy last week at the local recruiting station and have been assigned to Bainbridge for basic training.

The group includes Norman Arthur Carr, 153 Main Street, Ridgeley; William Ray Iliff, 32 Greene Street; Edward Davey, 56 Spring Street, Keyser; James Irvin Michael, Keyser, W. Va.; Roy Kenneth Wolford Jr., Eckhart, Phil Harold Brobeck, a visitor from Golden, Colo.; and James Pietro Scarcelli, Eckhart.

Rep. Hyde Urges Survey Of Potomac

The necessity for a survey and a master plan for the multiple development of all the water resources in the Potomac River watershed was the highlight of the closing of the two-meeting of the Interstate Commission on the Potomac River Basin Friday in Washington.

Rep. DeWitt S. Hyde (R-Md.), who earlier had urged such a comprehensive study in a speech to the basin delegates, is expected to introduce legislation providing funds for the survey.

Such a bill, said State Sen. John I. Rogers, of Keyser and chairman of the Commission, could be "integrated" with legislation recently offered by Rep. Joel T. Broyhill (R-Va.). The Broyhill measure would provide $300,000 for a study of river pollution and a maximum of $10 million for immediate construction of abatement facilities.

The survey desired by the commission would include — besides pollution problems — such matters as water supply, flood control, land-use and recreational development of the watershed.

Committee reports submitted to the commissioners Friday strongly urged the construction of both large and small water storage dams on the Potomac and its feeder streams.

Sen. Wayne Morse (D-Ore.) told the Commission at a dinner meeting that he would support any legislative measure designed to clean up the Potomac and develop its many untapped resources.

Brotemarkle Gets Contract For New Span

The S. T. Brotemarkle Contracting Company has been awarded the contract to build the bridge in the Narrows that will be the new intersection of Route 36 and Route 40, the State Roads Commission has announced.

The Brotemarkle firm's bid for erecting the bridge and constructing a retaining wall along Wills Creek was $180,819.

The bridge will be built on the east side of the Western Maryland Railway bridge and when the Route 36 modernization program is completed the viaduct under the railroad on the present highway at Homewood Addition will be eliminated, according to G. Bates Chaires, district engineer.

The new intersection will be about a half mile to the east of the present intersection.

Educator Dies In Lonaconing

LONA CONING — Mrs. Louise (Weisenthal) Bell, 85, a prominent educator and civic leader of this community, died yesterday morning at her home, 99 Douglas Avenue after an extended illness.

She was the widow of Archibald Thomas Bell, of Seattle, Wash., and Lonaconing.

Born in St. Johann, Saarbruecke, Germany, she was a daughter of the late Karl and Louise Petry Weisenthal.

She was educated in schools in Germany, Castle School here, Frostburg Normal School and the University of Maryland.

Mrs. Bell was a former principal of Detmold and Jackson elementary schools here and was the last surviving member of the first teaching staff of old Central High School here.

She was a member of First Presbyterian Church, where she was a former superintendent of the Intermediate Department of the Sunday school.

Active in civic and educational circles, she was a former vice president and secretary of the Lonaconing Civic Club and a former president of the Lonaconing Garden Club.

Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. Margaret Bell Sloan, at home, a member of the staff of Valley High School, and Mrs. Marion B. Stanton, Seattle, and two grandsons, John Karl Bell, Pittsburgh, and Frederick Robertson Sloan Jr., at home. A son, J. Karl Bell, preceded her in death.

The body is at the home where a funeral service will be conducted Tuesday at 2 p. m. Rev. C. H. Goshorn, pastor of First Presbyterian Church, will officiate and burial will be in Oak Hill Cemetery here. The family requests that flowers be omitted.

Firemen Extinguish Fire In Barn Loft

South End Fire Company extinguished a fire in a barn loft at the rear of 1719 Ford Avenue about 6:30 last night, with minor damage to the structure.

The blaze apparently started in an old discarded mattress in the loft of the building which also housed some farm machinery owned by Harry Simpson who occupied the Ford Avenue dwelling. Firemen said the floor and walls were burned but not extensively damaged. They returned to the fire station 35 minutes after receiving the call.

Saturday the South End company put out a blaze which burned curtains and bed clothes at the home of Edward Bechtel, 28 West First Street. The fire apparently started when a cigarette ignited a filled ashtray and spread to the curtains.

Flue Fire

LONA CONING — A fire alarm sounded Thursday at 11 p. m. to summon Good Will Volunteer Fire Company to a flue fire at the home of James Hutcheson, Beechwood, which was quickly extinguished.

Toll Gate House Campaign Will Be Continued

Sen. See Pledges Fight In Assembly

"I've not dropped the fight to preserve the old Toll Gate House," State Senator Charles N. See reported yesterday.

He said he still believes the State of Maryland should acquire the historic structure, located on U. S. 40 six miles west of here, and maintain it as a historical monument of the old National Road.

Senator See said he will renew the campaign for the Toll Gate House next month when the General Assembly convenes in Annapolis.

Last year, the Allegany County Delegation, of which See was then chairman, secured the passage of House Resolution 55, which called for the acquisition of the house, the only one of its kind in this area.

The brick building, little changed from its original condition, was built about 1833 for the collection of tolls on the National Highway, the first road to be financed by the government.

One by one, the toll gate houses which once dotted the great highway have disappeared and the structure here is, as far as is known, the only remaining structure of its kind along the route of the National Road in Maryland.

Senator See said the Board of Public Works did not go along with the resolution but that the campaign will be continued in the 1956 session of the Assembly.

Local YMCA Celebration Begins Today

The induction of a new Hi-Y club, the Central Hi-Y, tonight at 7:30 o'clock in the Community Room of the YMCA will kick off a week of activities celebrating National YMCA Week.

Mayor Roy W. Eves issued a proclamation last week setting aside January 22-29 as "YMCA Week" in Cumberland and inviting all citizens to review the contribution of the local "Y" to the community.

Parents and friends are invited to the induction program of the new Hi-Y organization tonight. Lawrence R. Dehn, staff associate, will be in charge.

Tomorrow the YMCA Ladies Auxiliary will conduct a "Talent Night" for boy and girl members of the Gra-Y, Junior and Youth groups in the Fiesta Room at 7:30 p. m.

WEDNESDAY—A gym exhibition with Gra-Y, Junior and Youth members participating will be held at 7:30 p. m. A special attraction of the program will be an exhibition of how the first game of basketball was played as invented by Dr. Naismith in 1891 in a Springfield, Mass., YMCA. Following the gymnasium program a free swim will be held for all parents, visitors and participants at 8:30 in the "X" pool.

THURSDAY—The YMCA membership committee will conduct a father-son dinner for the Youth Club at 6 p. m. in the Community Room. Singing, music and a magician will feature the entertainment program.

FRIDAY—A mother-daughter bean dinner will be held at 6 p. m. in the Community Room with a similar entertainment program. At 9 o'clock the Rec Council will hold "Parents Night" at the regular weekly Rec Club dance in the gym and youth lobby.

SATURDAY—Youth Division carnival in the club rooms from 10 a. m. to 2 p. m. At the same time a hobby show will be conducted by the Youth Committee for all boy and girl members. A boxing exhibition is scheduled from 3 to 4 p. m. while the Sunday school basketball league will play its regular contests in the gymnasium from noon until 6 p. m.

The entire week is designated "Visit the YMCA As A Guest." Free guest passes for swimming and other activities for all who attend can be obtained at the Youth Division desk.

Youth Accidentally Shoots Self In Foot

Ronald Whetsell, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Whetsell, 609 Lincoln Street, was admitted to Sacred Heart Hospital last night about 9:45 after accidentally shooting himself in the left foot.

The youth told investigating officers and hospital attendants he was cleaning a .22 caliber rifle in the basement of his home when the gun went off. The bullet struck him in the foot near the toes.

He was taken to the hospital by Gerald Willison, 1205 Frederick Street. Officer Wilbur Shank of the City Police Department investigated.

Injured Boy Improves

Hospital attaches reported Randy Harman, 11-year-old Petersburg, W. Va., boy who was injured while sled riding Friday, "slightly improved" last night.

The youngster, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Harman, was admitted to Sacred Heart Hospital in critical condition with internal injuries suffered in the mishap.

Learning Proficiency In Photography

These Girl Scouts from Troop No. 17 are seen attending a session with a volunteer Girl Scout program consultant, as they work for a proficiency badge in photography. William C. Harrison, a former commercial photographer who now follows the art as a hobby, is one of a number of men who give their time and knowledge to the Girl Scout program. The girls, left to right, are Patty Wolford, Nancy Valentine, Suzanne Knieriem and Linda Owens. Eight other girls are also in the class.

Today's Sermonette

Morality And Statistics

By REV. HARRY G. HAGER

Morals according to statistics, but not according to the revelation of God in Jesus Christ, have become popular in recent years. People are asked by trained interviewers about certain of their moral habits with the understanding that their answers will not be revealed.

The answers are analyzed, grouped and the results published in names mentioned.

There is no quarrel with the intention of those who collect and analyze these figures. They are interested in finding out how people actually live morally. But many people think that when they read these figures, that inasmuch as numerous people live this way, therefore this way of living must be all right for them to adopt also.

Such people, having no standard of morals higher than the prevailing human and customary one, and having no norm for their conduct that enables them to discriminate between what is good and what is evil, fall easy victims to all kinds of propaganda that seek to seduce them from their essential dignity as children of God.

It may be that people who live according to the way other people live are not aware that our morality has its source in the revelation of God's will and not in prevailing human practices. If the Christians of St. Paul's day had followed the advice of some people,

"when in Rome do as Romans do,"

Driver Facing Manslaughter Charge In Crash

Austin Van Meter, 25-year-old Mt. Storm, W. Va., man, will face a manslaughter charge in the death of his wife and five-year-old son, killed in an automobile accident

Saturday on U. S. Route 50 near Keyser, W. Va., authorities said.

Trooper Richard Long of the Keyser detachment of West Virginia State Police said charges had been withheld pending the outcome of injuries to Van Meter and his two other children, patients in Potomac Valley Hospital at Key-

Dead are Mrs. Ruby Van Meter, 24, wife of the driver of the car, and Delbert Van Meter, 5, their son.

Patsy Van Meter, 2, suffered a broken right leg and face lacerations, and Ronald Van Meter, 7, received a possible skull fracture. Van Meter sustained lacerations of the head and a possible concussion.

All were listed in "fairly good" condition last night at the hospital.

Trooper Long, who is investigating, stated that the Van Meter car was westbound and attempted to pass a car operated by Aubrey

Titus of Clarksburg, W. Va.

When Van Meter attempted to cut back into the proper lane of traffic after passing the Titus car, he lost control of the vehicle and skidded across the highway into a tree. The automobile bounced back to the opposite side of the road and struck the Titus car with a glancing blow, causing only slight damage.

Witnesses said the mother and son, who were killed instantly in the crash, were thrown from the car by the force of the impact.

The bodies of the victims are at the Rogers Funeral Home in Keyser.

Lions Meet Wednesday

The weekly meeting of the Lions Club of Cumberland will be held Wednesday at 12:15 p. m. in the Community Room of Central YMCA. Guest speaker will be Kamla K. Chaturvedi, principal of the teachers college, Dikaner, India, who will discuss India and Indian education.

Carpenters Told Policy Same As Before Merger

The letterheads will be changed but the established policies of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners remain.

That is the meat of the message received by Carpenters Local 1024 here from the Brotherhood's general office in reply to inquiries from various locals on the effect of the merger of the AFL and the CIO.

The information letter said the one place where revision may be required is the name, and that wherever the name of the American Federation of Labor has been used on letterheads and the like, the name should be changed to American Federation of Labor and Congress of Industrial Organizations when new stock is ordered from printers.

"Other than that, our Brotherhood will carry on exactly as it did before the merger," according to the letter from the office of M.

A. Hutcheson, general president.

Major changes brought about by the merger were listed as:

The Executive Council is expanded from 17 to 27 members.

Seventeen are from former AFL and 10 from former CIO affiliates.

This council will conduct the affairs of the AFL-CIO between conventions, which will be held each two years instead of annually.

During non-convention years, presidents of all international unions will meet to review executive council actions and formulate policies.

An Industrial Union Department, organized on the same basis as the Building Trades Department, is established in the merged organization and the carpenters will be long to both. Any conflict of interest between industrial and building trade workers will be worked out by a joint committee composed of members of both departments.

Central and state bodies are given a two-year period to work out merger procedures on a voluntary basis.

Lt. Pappas To Head S.A. Unit

Lt. James Pappas, former asstant at the Salvation Army Citadel, will come here this week from Moundsville, W. Va., to take charge of the South Cumberland

Salvation Army Corps.

Lt. Pappas will arrive here Wednesday and will hold his "welcome" meeting at the South Cumberland Corps Sunday at 7:45 p. m.

He will succeed Lt. and Mrs. Thomas Curtis, who withdrew from the Salvation Army recently to continue their education at Emory University, Atlanta, Ga.

A native of Fredericksburg, Va., Lt. Pappas came here early in 1954 to serve as assistant to Captain Daniel Biggs, commander of the Citadel.

He has been stationed at Moundsville for about a year.

Food Registration Tuesday In Ridgeley

The issuance of surplus government food and the registration for next month will be held tomorrow from 10 a. m. until 5 p. m. at the home of Knobley Mountain Post 136, American Legion, Ridgeley.

Roland Showers, chairman, last night said the area covered includes Ridgeley, Carpenter's Addition, Pattersons Creek and Wiley

Ford.

Annual Dinner Set At St. Phillip's

St. Philip's Episcopal Church, 9

South Smallwood Street, will hold its annual baked ham dinner next Sunday from 1 until 6 p. m. in the Parish House, according to Rev.

David C. Street, vicar.

Tickets may be obtained from Bruce E. Gates, chairman, or from Mrs. Robey in Emmanuel Parish House, or at the door. There will be a special prize for children 11 and under.

Consultants Aiding Girl Scout Program

Men Find Place In Civic Activity

By F. ALLAN WEATHERHOLT
News Staff Writer

More and more men are taking active part in the Girl Scout movement, and according to Girl Scout officials, are making a very sound contribution to the Girl Scout training program.

For some years, the Girl Scouts have sponsored a "Do-Dad" auxiliary unit, made up of men who annually do the hard work and heavy chores related to opening and closing of the annual summer camp. But this new interest of the men folk, welcomed by the Girl Scouts and enjoyed by the men, is a year-around program.

The Scouts and their leaders discovered here some time ago, that there are men in the community with special skills and hobbies, who are willing to devote some of their spare time as consultants and workshop leaders in teaching things of interest to the Girl Scouts that are a part of their training program.

While there are many of these men who give their time and skill freely, a typical male consultant is used in this story to demonstrate that men do have a place in the Girl Scout movement. Scout leaders point out that a long time ago the Boy Scouts found they needed the women folk in the Boy Scout movement and many local and area women serve regularly as den mothers in Cub packs.

William C. Harrison, 15 North Johnson Street, a photography enthusiast, is serving as a Girl Scout program consultant in the field of photography. He serves particularly as consultant for Troop 17, sponsored by Kingsley Methodist Church, and has helped the girls learn the different parts of their own cameras, how to clean, load and operate them, how to focus and judge distance, and what makes up good picture composition. At one session recently, each girl brought with her pictures she had taken to be examined and discussed for good and poor points.

The girls presently are learning the developing process and each member of the group will develop and print a roll of her own pictures.

They will then learn the process of enlarging pictures, how to mount and keep a file of their negatives. Before completing the sessions each girl will be given an assignment for a group of pictures and activities. After completing eight specific requirements, the girls will receive photography proficiency badges and will be one step nearer to becoming First Class Scouts.

Proficiency badges, Scout leaders point out, are not ends in themselves, but a means of arousing interest and giving a definite sense of usefulness. Each girl actually sees and investigates everything in the badge which she is undertaking. She does not memorize it from books, though books may help her after she has used her eyes and hands in actual participation.

This is Harrison's first experience as a Girl Scout program consultant. He finds the task refreshing and interesting. He says the girls are intelligent, interested and alert. They learn quickly and ask questions which help him to keep abreast of the hobby all the time.

Harrison is no novice as a photographer. He started some years ago in his home town and became a member of a camera club at Wheeling, W. Va. He worked for some time as a commercial photographer, but follows it now only as a hobby. He believes more men of the community with special talents and special hobbies should volunteer a little of their time each week toward helping these young people.

City Collects 83 Per Cent Of Its Levy

Spending Is Below Par At Halfway Mark

The City of Cumberland passed the halfway mark on the current fiscal year December 31 with 83 per cent of its levy safely in the till and spending three points below par.

A report on the condition of the levy, issued by City Auditor Arthur B. Gibson, showed December 31 collections of $1,324,993.04, or 83 per cent of the $1,595,630 levy.

Collections on the $1,128,500 tax levy totaled $1,026,005, or 91 per cent of the total tax levy, which received a big boost during December when a number of large corporation tax bills were paid.

Left uncollected on December 31 was $272,133.61. Except for $102,495 of uncollected taxes—some of which have not been certified by the State Tax Commission—most of the balance represent state and county shared taxes.

One state-shared source of income—the city's share of racing income—has reached $49,131.57, which is $1,131.57, more than was levied.

Spent to operate the various departments of the city was $639,246.57, which represents 47.3 per cent of the $1,350,296.81 which was appropriated. This is almost three points below par for the six month period.

A spot check indicated that most departments were keeping within their budgets.

3 Important Farm Meetings Set Next Month

February will be an important month for the farmers of Allegany County, for County Agent Joseph M. Stagger reports that all day meetings of interest to specialized groups will be conducted at the LaVale Fire Hall on three successive Thursdays.

First will be the annual winter cattle meeting from 10 a. m. until 3:30 p. m. February 9. Then will come the session for vegetable and fruit growers February 16. Finally there will be the poultry meeting on February 23.

Four outstanding speakers from the University of Maryland, including one native Allegany countian, will lead the cattle program. The county man, Guy Gienger, agricultural engineer, will lead a panel discussion on the relative merits of leasing and purchasing farm machinery.

John P. Dietrich, dairy specialist, will talk on dairy management, with special emphasis on feeding roughages and grain. Optimum levels of grain feeding will be discussed. Charles Ellington of the agronomy department will evaluate the three methods of preparing roughage, field-cured hay, barn dried hay and silage. Boyd White, livestock specialist, will discuss the improvement of the beef herd through better heifers and bulls. A panel will discuss grass legumes best suited for Allegany County.

The advisory committee which prepared the cattle program includes William Loar of Rawlings, Martin M. Gordon and Paul Browning of Flintstone, Fred Morgan of Frostburg, Wilbert Paul of Mt. Savage and James Twigg of Oldtown.

Assisting Steger in preparing the program for the winter meeting for fruit and vegetable growers are Theodore Stegmaier, Floyd Buser, Lawrence Twigg and Leslie Rice.

The weekly meeting of the Cumberland Optimist Club will be held Wednesday at 6:15 p. m. at Central YMCA. Dr. Benedict Skitarelic, pathologist at Memorial Hospital, will be the speaker. Dr. Skitarelic will speak on "The Heart."

Optimist Club To Meet

The weekly meeting of the Cumberland Optimist Club will be held Wednesday at 6:15 p. m. at Central will be the speaker. Dr. Skitarelic will speak on "The Heart."

Butler Confirms His Candidacy For Re-Election

Mahoney Claims 8 Counties' Support

(By The Associated Press)

Two Maryland congressional races—the 2nd and 5th districts—became more sharply focused over the weekend. Sen. Butler confirmed that he will seek re-election, and George P. Mahoney claimed the support of two more county central committees in his bid for the Democratic Senate nomination.

Although he made no general announcement—none was needed—Butler informed all members of the Republican State Central Committee by letter that he wanted them to be "among the first to know . . . I shall be a candidate" for re-election.

Toll Gate House Campaign Will Be Continued

Sen. See Pledges Fight In Assembly

"I've not dropped the fight to preserve the old Toll Gate House," State Senator Charles N. See reported yesterday.

He said he still believes the State of Maryland should acquire the historic structure, located on U. S. 40 six miles west of here, and maintain it as a historical monument of the old National Road.

Senator See said he will renew the campaign for the Toll Gate House next month when the General Assembly convenes in Annapolis.

Last year, the Allegany County Delegation, of which See was then chairman, secured the passage of House Resolution 55, which called for the acquisition of the house, the only one of its kind in this area.

The brick building, little changed from its original condition, was built about 1833 for the collection of tolls on the National Highway, the first road to be financed by the government.

One by one, the toll gate houses which once dotted the great highway have disappeared and the structure here is, as far as is known, the only remaining structure of its kind along the route of the National Road in Maryland.

Senator See said the Board of Public Works did not go along with the resolution but that the campaign will be continued in the 1956 session of the Assembly.

Local YMCA Celebration Begins Today

The induction of a new Hi-Y club, the Central Hi-Y, tonight at 7:30 o'clock in the Community Room of the YMCA will kick off a week of activities celebrating National YMCA Week.

Mayor Roy W. Eves issued a proclamation last week setting aside January 22-29 as "YMCA Week" in Cumberland and inviting all citizens to review the contribution of the local "Y" to the community.

Parents and friends are invited to the induction program of the new Hi-Y organization tonight. Lawrence R. Dehn, staff associate, will be in charge.

WEDNESDAY—A gym exhibition with Gra-Y, Junior and Youth members participating will be held at 7:30 p. m. A special attraction of the program will be an exhibition of how the first game of basketball was played as invented by Dr. Naismith in 1891 in a Springfield, Mass., YMCA. Following the gymnasium program a free swim will be held for all parents, visitors and participants at 8:30 in the "Y" pool.

THURSDAY—The YMCA membership committee will conduct a father-son dinner for the Youth Club at 6 p. m. in the Community Room. Singing, music and a magician will feature the entertainment program.

FRIDAY—A mother-daughter dinner will be held at 6 p. m. in the Community Room with a similar entertainment program. At 9 o'clock the Rec Council will hold "Parents Night" at the regular weekly Rec Club dance in the gym and youth lobby.

SATURDAY—Youth Division carnival in the club rooms from 10 a. m. to 2 p. m. At the same time a hobby show will be conducted by the Youth Committee for all boy and girl members. A boxing exhibition is scheduled from 3 to 4 p. m. while the Sunday school basketball league will play its regular contests in the gymnasium from noon until 6 p. m.

The entire week is designated "Visit the YMCA As A Guest." Free guest passes for swimming and other activities for all who attend can be obtained at the Youth Division desk.

Today's Sermonette

Morality And Statistics

By REV. HARRY G. HAGER

Morals according to statistics, but not according to the revelation of God in Jesus Christ, have become popular in recent years. People are asked by trained interviewers about certain of their moral habits with the understanding that their answers will not be revealed. The answers are analyzed, grouped and the results published no names mentioned.

There is no quarrel with the intention of those who collect and analyze these figures. They are interested in finding out how people actually live morally. But many people think that when they read these figures, that inasmuch as numerous people live this way, therefore this way of living must be all right for them to adopt also. Such people, having no standard of morals higher than the prevailing human and customary one, and having no norm for their conduct that enables them to discriminate between what is good and what is evil, fall easy victims to all kinds of propaganda that seek to seduce them from their essential dignity as children of God.

It may be that people who live according to the way other people live are not aware that our morality has its source in the revelation of God's will and not in prevailing human practices. If the Christians of St. Paul's day had followed the advice of some people, "when in Rome do as Romans do,"

Christianity would have died. It was precisely because these early Christians did not do as the Romans did that they were persecuted and martyred. But it was because of their insistence upon a different code of morals that enabled them to conquer Rome. Those who have no God but man worship a poor thing.

History has demonstrated that humanity apart from God provides a sandy foundation for building either a sound personal life or an enduring society.

Statistics can show us how we are living but statistics cannot tell us how we ought to live nor can they provide us with the power that enables us to live as we ought.

Jesus challenged men to be what they ought to be. He sought to awaken in their degraded lives the sense of that dignity that God planted in them. No man ever recovers from his sins until he finds again that sense of his essential dignity as a creature made by God in the image of God. The prodigal son went back to his father when "he came to himself."

If we are wise we will look to God for the blueprints for our living. A million people doing a wrong thing does not make that wrong thing right. A collection of statistics may tell us how we are living but only God can tell us how we should live. We should be alert to the menace of social and political pressures that are not informed by Christian revelation. The Christian looks to God for his moral value rather than to the clamor of the crowd.

Carpenters Told Policy Same As Before Merger

The letterheads will be changed but the established policies of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners remain.

That is the meat of the message received by Carpenters Local 1024 here from the Brotherhood's general office in reply to inquiries from various locals on the effect of the merger of the AFL and the CIO.

The information letter said the one place where revision may be required is the name, and that wherever the name of the American Federation of Labor has been used on letterheads and the like, the name should be changed to American Federation of Labor and Congress of Industrial Organizations when new stock is ordered from printers.

"Other than that, our Brotherhood will carry on exactly as it did before the merger," according to the letter from the office of M. A. Hutcheson, general president. Major changes brought about by the merger were listed as:

The Executive Council is expanded from 17 to 27 members. Seventeen are from former AFL and 10 from former CIO affiliates. This council will conduct the affairs of the AFL-CIO between conventions, which will be held every two years instead of annually. During non-convention years, presidents of all international unions will meet to review executive council actions and formulate policies.

An Industrial Union Department, organized on the same basis as the Building Trades Department, is established in the merged organization and the carpenters will be long to both. Any conflict of interest between industrial and building trade workers will be worked out by a joint committee composed of members of both departments.

Central and state bodies are given a two-year period to work out merger procedures on a voluntary basis.

More and more men are taking active part in the Girl Scout movement, and according to Girl Scout officials, are making a very sound contribution to the Girl Scout training program.

For some years, the Girl Scouts have sponsored a "Do-Dad" auxiliary unit, made up of men who annually do the hard work and heavy chores related to opening and closing of the annual summer camp. But this new interest of the men folk, welcomed by the Girl Scouts and enjoyed by the men, is a year-around program.

The Scouts and their leaders discovered here some time ago, that there are men in the community, with special skills and hobbies, who are willing to devote some of their spare time as consultants and workshop leaders in teaching things of interest to the Girl Scouts that are a part of their training program.

While there are many of these men who give their time and skill freely, a typical male consultant is used in this story to demonstrate that men do have a place in the Girl Scout movement. Scout leaders point out that a long time ago the Boy Scouts found they needed the women folk in the Boy Scout movement and many local and area women serve regularly as den mothers in Cub packs.

William C. Harrison, 15 North Johnson Street, a photography enthusiast, is serving as a Girl Scout program consultant in the field of photography. He serves particularly as consultant for Troop 17, sponsored by Kingsley Methodist Church, and has helped the girls learn the different parts of their own cameras, how to clean, load and operate them, how to focus and judge distance, and what makes up good picture composition. At one session recently, each girl brought with her pictures she had taken to be examined and discussed for good and poor points.

The girls presently are learning the developing process and each member of the group will develop and print a roll of her own pictures. They will then learn the process of enlarging pictures, how to mount and keep a file of their negatives. Before completing the sessions each girl will be given an assignment for a group of pictures and activities. After completing eight specific requirements, the girls will receive photography proficiency badges and will be one step nearer to becoming First Class Scouts.

Proficiency badges, Scout leaders point out, are not ends in themselves, but a means of arousing interest and giving a definite sense of usefulness. Each girl actually sees and investigates everything in the badge which she is undertaking. She does not memorize it from books, though books may help her after she has used her eyes and hands in actual participation.

This is Harrison's first experience as a Girl Scout program consultant. He finds the task refreshing and interesting. He says the girls are intelligent, interested and alert. They learn quickly and ask questions which help him to keep abreast of the hobby all the time.

Harrison is no novice as a photographer. He started some years ago in his home town and became a member of a camera club at Wheeling, W. Va. He worked for some time as a commercial photographer, but follows it now only as a hobby. He believes more men of the community with special talents and special hobbies should volunteer a little of their time each week toward helping these young people.

City Collects 83 Per Cent Of Its Levy

Spending Is Below Par At Halfway Mark

The City of Cumberland passed the halfway mark on the current fiscal year December 31 with 83 per cent of its levy safely in the till and spending three points below par.

A report on the condition of the levy, issued by City Auditor Arthur B. Gibson, showed December 31 collections of $1,324,993.04, or 83 per cent of the $1,595,630 levy.

Collections on the $1,128,500 tax levy totaled $1,026,005, or 91 per cent of the total tax levy, which received a big boost during December when a number of large corporation tax bills were paid.

Left uncollected on December 31 was $272,133.61. Except for $102,495 of uncollected taxes—some of which have not been certified by the State Tax Commission—most of the balance represent state and county shared taxes.

One state-shared source of income—the city's share of racing income—has reached $49,131.57, which is $1,131.57, more than was levied.

Spent to operate the various departments of the city was $639,246.57, which represents 47.3 per cent of the $1,350,296.81 which was appropriated. This is almost three points below par for the six month period.

A spot check indicated that most departments were keeping within their budgets.

3 Important Farm Meetings Set Next Month

February will be an important month for the farmers of Allegany County, for County Agent Joseph M. Stagger reports that all day meetings of interest to specialized groups will be conducted at the LaVale Fire Hall on three successive Thursdays.

First will be the annual winter cattle meeting from 10 a. m. until 3:30 p. m. February 9. Then will come the session for vegetable and fruit growers February 16. Finally there will be the poultry meeting on February 23.

Four outstanding speakers from the University of Maryland, including one native Allegany countian, will lead the cattle program. The county man, Guy Gienger, agricultural engineer, will lead a panel discussion on the relative merits of leasing and purchasing farm machinery.

John P. Dietrich, dairy specialist, will talk on dairy management, with special emphasis on feeding roughages and grain. Optimum levels of grain feeding will be discussed. Charles Ellington of the agronomy department will evaluate the three methods of preparing roughage, field-cured hay, barn dried hay and silage. Boyd White, livestock specialist, will discuss the improvement of the beef herd through better heifers and bulls. A panel will discuss grass legumes best suited for Allegany County.

The advisory committee which prepared the cattle program includes William Loar of Rawlings, Martin M. Gordon and Paul Browning of Flintstone, Fred Morgan of Frostburg, Wilbert Paul of Mt. Savage and James Twigg of Oldtown.

Assisting Stagger in preparing the program for the winter meeting for fruit and vegetable growers are Theodore Stegmaler, Floyd Buser, Lawrence Twigg and Leslie Rice.

The weekly meeting of the Cumberland Optimist Club will be held Wednesday at 6:15 p. m. at Central YMCA. Dr. Benedict Skitarelic, pathologist at Memorial Hospital, will be the speaker. Dr. Skitarelic will speak on "The Heart."

Butler Confirms His Candidacy For Re-Election

Mahoney Claims 8 Counties' Support

(By The Associated Press)
Two Maryland congressional races—the 2nd and 5th districts—became more sharply focused over the weekend. Sen. Butler confirmed that he will seek re-election, and George P. Mahoney claimed the support of two more county central committees in his bid for the Democratic Senate nomination.

Although he made no general announcement—none was needed—Butler informed all members of the Republican State Central Committee by letter that he wanted them to be "among the first to know . . . I shall be a candidate" for re-election.

He is expected to file formally shortly. Already in the race are D. John Markey of Frederick, retired brigadier general who beat Butler by 1,889 popular votes but lost the unit vote in the 1950 GOP primary, and Henry J. Laque Jr., Anne Arundel County junk dealer. Both already have filed.

In the 2nd Congressional District, where Republican Rep. Devereux is an announced candidate for re-election, a familiar face—both to Devereux and the district's voters—entered the picture in the person of State Del. A. Gordon Boone, three-time Democratic majority leader of the House of Delegates.

Boone, who lost out in 1952 when Devereux won the second of his three terms in the House of Representatives, announced he will again seek the Democratic nomination. He called Devereux a "do-nothing, sit-and-vote, I-won't-get-into-trouble congressman."

Boone will be opposed on the Democratic ballot by Hugh D. E. Taylor of Fallston, Harford County, who filed for the nomination earlier last week.

Devereux, who defeated Boone in the 1952 general election by 35,690 votes, is unopposed for the GOP nomination so far.

The 5th District congressional race drew a fourth probable starter in William B. Prendergast, 41-year-old Naval Academy professor who cleared the way for formal entry in the Republican primary. He submitted his resignation to the Naval Academy, effective Feb. 1, because "an opportunity for a broader type of public service than I have been performing seems to be at hand"—which was generally assumed to mean he will be a candidate.

The Hatch Act, which forbids political activity by federal employees, prohibits Prendergast from officially declaring his candidacy before his resignation is effective.

In addition to his Navy teaching, Prendergast is a special consultant to Civil Defense Administrator Val Petersen and is a former assistant research director of President Eisenhower's commission on Intergovernmental Relations.

All-Navy Field
His entry in the GOP race would make it an all-Navy field, Joseph K. Taussig, a young retired Navy captain, having already filed.

The incumbent, Rep. Lankford, has already filed for the Democratic nomination and will have primary opposition from L. Harold Sothoron, former State Senate majority leader from Prince Georges County.

And while the congressional races picked up added starters, front-running George P. Mahoney announced the endorsement of two more county Democratic state central committees—Charles and Cecil, the seventh and eighth on his list. Mahoney, making his second try for the U.S. Senator's position, has already claimed the support of central committees in Anne Arundel, Allegany, Carroll, Garrett, Howard and Worcester counties and says he has "a lot more" endorsements "in the safe."
